WORLD SERIES UNDER WAY

WILL ASKS WHERE WAS SHAKESPEARE AS TUNNEY WEDS?

(Special To The News)

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 4.—Well, Gene Tunney got married and everybody wishes them good luck. I thought on account of his going to Europe to marry, that maybe that he was going to get a Shakespeare to marry them.

What will become of that author that has been walking around with him? He will stroll alone, now.

My idea of the height of conceit would be a political speaker that would go on the air when that world series is on.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Progress quickly eliminates some of the long observed customs in New Castle. Moving of the central firemen to the new fire station on South Jefferson street, resulted in the elimination of the fire bell signal in case of a fire call. The old bell is to be taken down from the tower of the old East street station. Councilmen have not as yet determined what will be done with it, but no provision has been made for erecting it at the new station. With the change in location of the fire station, the central firemen do not have to enter Washington street at the dangerous East street corner, and necessity for the bell is not so great. The whistle blows the fire alarm boxes as of yore, and volunteer firemen are apprised of the fact that there is a fire by this method.

Pa Newc and the rest of the Newc family aren't exactly broke. Report of the city treasurer, Lewis McClung, yesterday showed that nearly a million and a half had been paid into the treasury this year in city and school taxes.

One more day—then the last chance to register. Saturday is the final registration day in New Castle, prior to the November election. Registration hours are 7 to 9, 11 to 2 and 4 to 10 o'clock.

Rather a combination of the old and the new was witnessed on the streets here last night, when a dilapidated auto was seen, which had a red lantern attached in lieu of headlights.

Pa Newc overheard a conversation of some middle aged or perhaps older ladies in a down town eating place. They were chatting affably when the conversation diverted itself to the younger generation and especially the men. Pa Newc, let him say, listened to a tale of woe that would make any young man's ears burn with shame at the misdeeds that were quoted concerning him. Pa Newc isn't such an old duffer himself and the conversation bore much interest to him.

All set for The News score board. If you don't think it's a piece of complicated machinery to operate you are mistaken. The News is doing it so that sporting fans of the city will not miss the most minute of all the details concerning the series though they are not able to attend the game.

Following work which has been progressing all summer, the First M. E.

Hoover Confers With Economist On Farm Relief

Dr. Otto Hoetzsch, Member Of German Reichstag, Talks With Hoover

FARMERS' PROBLEMS NEED ATTENTION

Believe Time Ripe For Placing Agriculture On Level With Commerce And Industry

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The farm relief problem, which has become a major issue of the presidential campaign, is common to all the rest of the world, Herbert Hoover was informed today by Prof. Otto Hoetzsch, noted economist and member of the German reichstag.

Hoover and Hoetzsch discussed the farm problem at length and were said to have agreed that the problem of placing agriculture on an economic equality with commerce and industry was the cure for agricultural ailments both here and abroad. The German economist declared the farmers of Europe and Asia were confronted with the same conditions as those of the United States—namely, that they were forced to pay higher prices for manufactured articles than they receive for the products of their farms.

Following his conference with Hoover, Hoetzsch praised both the Republican nominee and Governor Al-

Coroner's Jury Probes Accident

Returns Accidental Death Verdict In Case Of Death Of Thos. Haswell

MANY WITNESSES ARE EXAMINED

After hearing many witnesses, the coroner's jury called to determine the cause of the death of Thomas B. Haswell of Ellwood City returned a verdict of accidental death, when the inquest was held in the office of Alderman L. C. Mantz, last night. The jury also found that Charles Thompson whose automobile hit Haswell on the Harlansburg road on the night of September 29, had failed to report the accident to the authorities.

The jury's verdict was apparently based upon the testimony of eight witnesses who saw Haswell on the night of the accident and who testified that when they had passed him on the Harlansburg road he was staggering.

Had Been at Dance

The sum of the testimony of various witnesses was that Haswell, who lived in Ellwood City had gone to Rock Springs with his wife and part of his family in the car of A. O. Anderson. For some reason Haswell did not start back in the Anderson car but left before it did and started to walk in to New Castle.

At a point near where the concrete and macadam join he was struck by the car of Charles Thompson and killed. Several cars stopped there, and the body was placed in the automobile of Mrs. Julian Miller and taken to the New Castle hospital. Death ensued on the trip in.

Mrs. Lauretta Kummer was called first and testified that she had been to the dance at Rock Springs and had started home about 11:35. Near where the macadam and the con-

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 4.—The football season has brought more than the familiar thud of the pigskin to the campus of the University of Missouri this fall. It has brought a verbal battle between the school's co-eds and Chester L. Brewer, director of athletics. And all over the price of admission.

Co-eds, according to Brewer, show far less interest in the football games than did their sisters of 10 years ago—unless the men offer to take them. And as a result, he has point-

Verona's Charges Of Cruelty And "Cossack Rule" Will Get Airing

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 4.—"The higher-ups"—possibly Mayor Charles H. Kline, Superintendent of Police Peter P. Walsh, and Director of Public Safety James M. Clark—will have their inning next in the grand jury's investigation here into Alderman John J. Verona's charges of police protected graft and corruption, District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner announced today.

Gardner indicated that the grand jury would probably be ready to "go after the big fellows" by Monday, and to learn their story of the alleged collusion between members of the city administration and "racketeers"

Letter Charges Cruelty

Meantime councilmanic circles stirred with activity over Verona's letter to Mayor Kline in which he charged "Cossack rule" in Pittsburgh, where innocent residents were frequently arrested and cruelly beat.

The letter, which was presented to the council, is now in the hands of Safety Director Clark. Although Clark said he had not had time to investigate the letter thoroughly, he asserted that brutality and barbar-

Atlantic Seaboard Cities To Be Visited Near End Of Campaign

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 4.—No one realizes any more keenly than Governor Smith the importance of the border states to the Democratic cause in the forthcoming November election.

Consequently he is giving very careful personal attention to the business of deciding upon the second major speaking trip of his campaign. He has just completed his first trip. The west is behind him, the border country next, which leaves the wet and populous east to the end of the campaign.

It is the border states schedule that is occupying most of Governor Smith's attention while he is snatching a few days' rest this week in Albany. The next itinerary possible will be announced tomorrow. Unless there are 11th hour changes, it will start in North Carolina early next week at Raleigh, the state capital, and continue through Chattanooga, Tenn.; Louisville, Ky.; Sedalia, Mo.; Chicago and Cleveland, with probably Balti-

Clinic Committee Is Given Charge Of Marshall Fund

Money Will Be Used By Committee To Better Lad's Condition

The Dale Marshall fund, amounting to $567.56, which was collected by The New Castle News for the relief of a 17-year-old lad who is both blind and deaf today was turned over to J. Lee Calahan, chairman of the Crippled Children's Clinic committee of the New Castle Rotary Club, to be used for the relief of the boy in any way which is deemed advisable.

Rex Patch, Ray Hall, Walter Duff and W. J. Caldwell, fellow committee members, will aid Mr. Calahan.

The News' attention was called to the youth late in July by his father, William Marshall, of 7 South Jefferson street. The youth has been blind and deaf for some time, and the father had expended all of his money, and all that he could possibly earn, in futile efforts to better the lad's condition. Since his money was exhausted, through the columns of The News, he appealed to the citizens of New Castle and Lawrence county for aid for his son.

The response to the plea was generous. It is hoped by The News and the friends of Dale Marshall that the fund will help to aleviate his condition.

Coolidges Married Twenty-Three Years, Celebrating Today

President And Mrs. Calvin Coolidge Celebrate Wedding Anniversary Today

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—President and Mrs. Coolidge today celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary. Mrs. Coolidge today celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary. Mrs. Coolidge returned to the White House from the sickbed of her mother at Northampton, Mass., especially to be with her husband on the occasion.

As is their custom they are observing the day quietly. The president came over to the executive offices early and started his day's work, and Mrs. Coolidge went about her usual domestic duties she engages in when here. There was a possibility that a few intimate friends might be dinner guests.

The President and the then Grace Goodhue were married at Burlington, Vt., in 1905, when the latter was a school teacher, and the President a struggling young lawyer.

YANKEE STADIUM, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Graced by a mellow autumn day, such as poets gush over but seldom see, and sponsored by a record-shattering crowd, ranging well up toward 80,000, the premiere of the 1928 world series between Yankees and Cardinals was to come down to its momentous decision this afternoon under auspices only slightly less than perfect. All world series openings are something of an inspiration from their dramatic side, but this one promised to exceed its predecessors.

Battered Yankees

It featured a battered, shattered Yankee team, fighting for its waning prestige, against a physically sound, mentally alert rival. It brought together many of the central figures—Alexander, the Cardinals' famous old Pete; Ruth and Gehrig, the Yankee field artillery—who fought to the death in the tinging issue of two years ago. It presented the quite appealing picture of an old champion which promised to forget its disabilities and make a fight that would fill the eye and gladden the heart.

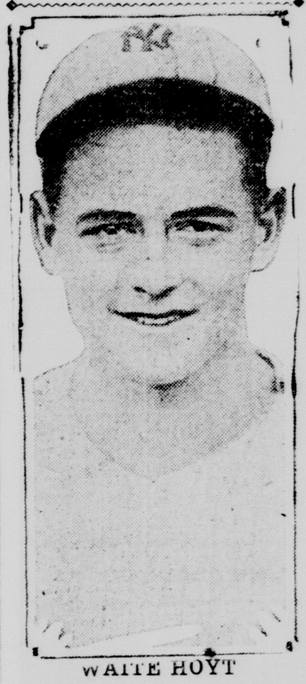

Every seat in the 40,000 reserved sections was sold days ago and last night men by the thousand watched and waited at the locked gates that they might "beat the gun" in the dash for choice locations in the unreserved rows.

Prince Nicholas Of Roumania Has Eloped, Reported

Dispatch Says Prince Nicholas And Young Aristocrat Elope To Paris

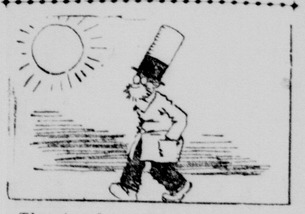

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—The Budapest newspaper Pestinapro today published a sensational report stating that Prince Nicholas of Roumania had eloped to Paris with a beautiful young Roumanian aristocrat whose name was not disclosed, according to dispatches received here from the Hungarian capital.

The report added that Nicholas is now visiting his elder brother, Prince Carol, in Paris. It is understood that Dowager Queen Marie and Princess Ileana, sister of Carol and Nicholas, have cabled communications to Nicholas imploring him to return, the dispatches stated.

Prince Carol, who might have been king of Roumania but preferred to remain in exile with the beautiful titian-haired Madame Lupescu, was last reported in Belgium. His six-year-old son Michael now rules the country under a regency.

There's a law I think on the statute books, that protects us from hold-up men, but the law falls down in this case I mean, and I'm held up now and again. There's a pair of hold-ups who have me marked, who are mentioned oft times in these rhymes, and they back me up to the very wall and relieve me of nickels and dimes. Their methods are smooth, and results are sure, they really should patent their style, for these hold-ups are painless, though always sure, their weapons consist of a smile. And they stick me up on the public street, for uncle is always fair prey, and they take their loot to the candy shop, its seventy-four today.

Hoover Has had Wide Diplomatic Experience.

Hoover's diplomatic skill developed gradually during the many years when as a private American business man operating large enterprises in foreign countries he had to deal with many governments. While feeding Belgium Hoover solved unprecedented diplomatic entanglements. Again and again his diplomatic genius quited the fears on both sides and he gained permission from both warring factions to continue the work. Probably no other human being has ever induced so many great governments to make so many concessions to his purposes in such a serious international crisis. All the while Hoover had no force behind him except the force of public opinion in a righteous cause. We need a man like that for President.

ed out, salesmen of athletic ticket coupons are laughed at when approaching sorority groups. "They've lost their institutional spirit," he declares. "They're grafters."

All this brought stinging retorts from the co-ed population of Columbia. "Nothing of the sort," they return.

"False," says Miss Lois Jacquin, secretary-treasurer of the student government association, in her reply to Brewer's charge that the co-eds fail to buy tickets. She cites her own sorority as an example, asserting that its members attend the football games in a body. "Perhaps girls have degenerated into a bunch of grafters, but why blame the girls? The boys take the initiative. Why not let them pay the bill?"

"Ten years ago," this from Miss Mary Ellen Hubbard, president of the women's student government, "the admittance price to a football game was $1. Now it is from $3 to $5. Besides progress brings new customs and some girls now resent the slight of not being asked to a game and consequently do not attend unless they are dated."

Mary Louise Bright of St. Louis, another indignant co-ed, questions Brewer's data. "He doesn't give any figures," she declares. "There are more outside activities and interests now, anyway. Other than studies, football games were the only source of diversion 10 years ago."

Meanwhile the battle rages—the male students remaining neutral, but hoping.

HOOVER CONFERS WITH ECONOMIST ON FARM RELIEF

fred E. Smith, his Democratic rival, for the manner in which they discussed the farm problem in their acceptance speeches.

Is World Problem.

"The agrarian question is the same all over the world," said Hoetzsch. "The farm problem is the most acute and important problem facing a dozen different nations. It is very difficult to ascribe reasons for the universal condition.

"The problem exists not only in Germany and the other vanquished nations but also in the victorious nations and now I find it in the rich United States.

"The trouble seems to be that the income received by the farmers for what they produce with their hands does not measure up to the level of what they have to pay for their other needs, such as machine-made goods. It is the same here as in Germany, Russia and southeastern Europe. It is not a question of over-production so much as a question of providing a low cost of distribution, so that the farmer can get a greater share of the actual selling price. The agriculturalists of all nations need to be organized in some way to meet this problem. As it is the farm class throughout the world cannot long withstand present conditions.

Completes Speech.

"I think both Mr. Hoover and Mr. Smith realize the seriousness of this problem."

Hoover meanwhile continued to handle campaign matters at his headquarters. He has completed his Elizabethton, Tenn., speech, which he delivers Saturday afternoon. He will leave here tomorrow night for Tennessee, returning in time to go to church Sunday morning.

The nominee has not yet begun work on either his Boston or New York speech. He told callers he hadn't even selected a subject for the Boston address, although the New York speech will be drafted to rally his party in the Empire state.

SMITH PLANNING FOR INVASION OF DOUBTFUL STATES

more thrown in at the start or at the end of the journey.

Enters Doubtful States.

Such an itinerary would take the Democratic nominee into every border state where the issue is admittedly doubtful, North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri and Maryland. He already has appeared in Oklahoma. The sixth of the states that may properly be called on the border line between north and south. In addition there would be Illinois and Ohio.

Some of the border states, that is, Maryland, Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Missouri are necessary to the Smith candidacy if it is to be successful. He might lose some of them and still win. Should he lose them all not even the most optimistic Democrat believes that the New York governor will be going anywhere except back to private life next November.

It figures out this way:

There are 114 electoral votes in the solid south, in states which never have given their electoral vote to a Republican presidential candidate, and which Democratic leaders are counting upon despite all Republican claims and "bear stories".

The five border states of Maryland, Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Missouri count 61 more, or 175 in all.

Normally the states are Democratic. This year for various reasons, principally religious and prohibition, they are doubtful. The line of figuring leaves the Democrats still 89 electoral votes short of electing their man. Those 89 votes can be found in New York 45, Massachusetts 18, Rhode Island 5, Connecticut 7 and New Jersey 14.

Believe West Safe.

Consequently, any loss in the normally Democratic border states must be made up by the capture of a corresponding number of electoral votes west of the Mississippi river.

Publicly, of course, the Democratic managers will not admit the possibility of losing any of the border states. Privately, they see the possibility of losing several. And in that event, they are figuring upon several states west of the Mississippi making up the difference.

Governor Smith has just returned from the west. His advisers are counting on Montana certainly and they believe their chances are 50-50 in Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota.

Is Resting Today.

Anyway, they figure, it is a fairly close squeeze, the loss of an eastern border state must be made up in the west.

Hence the close study that is being given the border states situation, hence the personal attention it is getting from Governor Smith himself. It is so important that the matter of the itinerary is not being left to the Democratic managers in New York, as embraced by the national committee. Governor Smith himself is doing the deciding of where he will go and what he will speak upon.

Governor Smith rested today against his labors of next week, he may go to New York to spend the week-end and inaugurate his border states' trip from there.

NEARLY 9,000 VOTERS ALREADY REGISTERED

Big Rush Saturday.

If the above prediction as to the size of this year's registration is correct the third day's registration will be very heavy. This will not be unusual as past experience has always shown the last day's registration to be the largest of all.

The Republican County committee urges all voters desiring to participate in the election to register as early as possible, Saturday October 6th, the final registration day. By registering early the voter not only assures his registration but will help to relieve the registrars of a last minute rush which oftentimes overtaxes the registration board.

The Republican county committee is basing its prediction of a large last day registration on facts developed by checks which have been conducted by Republican ladies in their respective districts, these checks showing in many instances that a surprising number of residents on representative streets in different parts of the city have not as yet registered.

COL. LINDBERGH CONTINUES GOOD SENSE

WITH the good sense that he has manifested since the day back in May, 1927, when he became a world hero, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh continues to maintain that record. His latest exhibition of good common sense is his announcement of yesterday that he is convinced the best interests of United States will be served by the election of Herbert Hoover to the presidency.

Col. Lindbergh wired to the presidential candidate of the Republican party from St. Louis:

The more I see of this campaign the more strongly I feel that your election is of supreme importance to the country.

"Your qualities as a man and what you stand for regardless of party, make me feel that the problem which will come before our country during the next four years will be best solved under your leadership."

FOR GOOD ROADS

ONE of the outstanding matters of business accomplished at the convention of the Pennsylvania Association of County Commissioners which closed at Allentown, Saturday, was the unanimous endorsement by resolution of the proposed $50,000,000 good roads bond issue, which comes before the voters at the general election in November, as Amendment No. 9 on the ballot.

Among the speakers in favor of the bond issue was Samuel Eckles, chief engineer of the State Highway Department, whose talk was followed by the favorable action by the body.

If the state plan of expansion of the good roads system is to be continued the bond issue must be authorized.

HOOVER'S DIGNIFIED CAMPAIGN

THE ultimate event will prove the nomination of Mr. Hoover to have been wise, and it may be said with no less certainty that it was entirely logical on the part of the Republican party. He represents not only the prevailing thought and aspiration of the masses of the party, barring a few small groups and other oddments; he is, in fact, a glorified symbol thereof. This, one scarcely needs to state, is not obsequious flattery.

Beyond all other political figures of the day, the former secretary of commerce is the apostle of the gospel of efficiency. That vast number of earnest men and women, some in high places and some in humble, who press on with such immense enthusiasm to produce two units in the workshop where one was produced before, and who rather mistily talk of co-operation and service and find in these magic words reassurance that somehow their untiring energy in material things serves an idealistic end—that vast number of people have in the Republican nominee their perfect archtype.

As a campaigner Mr. Hoover is proving equally efficient. He has sought to elevate the campaign to a high level and to confine it to the discussion of the real issues. He prefers the dignified course of placing the issues sharply before the people in a few addresses and paying no attention to the other side. His program has not been changed because of anything his adversary has said or done.

TOUCHDOWN!

Football occupies the arena. In every hamlet, town and city we hear the cheering of the fans. Rising out of each effusion is the refrain—either expressed or hoped for—"Touchdown! Touchdown!"

Football games are won by scoring. Scoring follows team play—cooperation, concentration, the will to win and an inherent love for the sport.

Observation of a team at play gives us the exact measure of its teamwork and concentration; of its coaching efficiency; of the moral support of the student body.

One of the finest features of the game is the good sportsmanship of the fans. Enthusiastic in putting heart into their own team, they are prompt to give recognition to keen plays by the other side.

What a glad day when we can have this spirit carried over into school and community life. It will produce the equivalent of the touchdown in the class room.

The schools have just entered on their yearly contest—a contest against pupil failures; a contest against public and political interference; against public indifference or apathy. It is a contest against the tendency to under-estimate the importance of schooling; a contest against the temptation of a job with ready money; a contest against school routine and discipline; against lagging interest where subject matter is not vitalized or motivated; against a single standard rate of progress; against dissipation of energies and distraction of interest; through outside amusements. Here in an arduous contest, well worth the absorbing interest of every member of the community.

As the outcome of a football game rests heavily on coaching efficiency, it falls to teachers and school officials, as a coaching staff, to build up a winning body of pupils. It can be taken for granted that the staff's ambitions are stirred for a successful year. But what they can achieve will be only in proportion to the team-play of the student body and the loyal support of the public.

Fans there are who are dissatisfied with the coaching. From the grand stand they tell how the team should be run. But successful teams are the product of careful winnowing by the coaching staff, who, in turn, must be entrusted with the development of the team. There are school critics who would like to run the schools from the side lines. But the success is dependent on the careful selection of the administrative and teaching force, who, in co-operation with the board of education, must be entrusted with the conduct of the schools.

Confidence in and support of the coach is essential to victory on the gridiron. It is so with our schools. The educational coaching staff has been selected. Members are mindful of their responsibilities. They are set for a scoring year. If it is worth while to stress the football game for its sport's sake, it is worth while to stress schooling for the child's sake. If victory is desirable for the team, success in schooling is doubly worth while for the student body. If winning the game is gratifying to the fans, school efficiency should be equally satisfying to taxpayers and public.

A competent head coach, an able group of assistants, a co-operative group of pupils and a loyal public will produce a successful season—a victorious school year.

It isn't difficult to teach the heathen to wear clothes. They don't see any news photographs.

Wise Waiting.
A Big City.
A Fine Old German.
Poor Trotzky, Happy Lenin.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

New York state Democratic convention, waiting for Gov. Smith returning to select candidate, waited wisely.

Gov. Smith chose as candidate for governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, liked and respected by all that know him. For lieutenant-governor Gov. Smith chose Col. Herbert H. Lehman, very able business man, whose unlimited capacity for hard work would enable him, if necessary, to relieve Mr. Roosevelt, whose health is bad.

These nominations add strength to the Democratic ticket. Republicans will realize it and work harder.

New York has 6,917,500 population, a good-sized city that, in a short time, will change to 20,000,000.

Experts show that before this century ends New York and 50 miles of territory around it will have 50,000,000 population, more than all of Great Britain or France.

Machinery, science and intensive cultivation eliminate worry about over-population.

Some day New York, where the United States spends its money, will have a real estate boom worth talking about. Land that now sells for $800 a square foot will sell for $1,000, and be cheap at that price.

Germany celebrated Tuesday the 81st birthday of Paul von Hindenburg, a great leader and fighter in the war, although he had retired as an old man when the war started.

Von Hindenburg has shown himself a capable, powerful, loyal president of the German republic. A nation is to be envied that can produce such statesmen and fighters as Von Stein, Frederick the Great and Hindenburg.

Trotzky, dying of malaria and consumption in Turkestan, exiled by his Soviet associates, is too proud to ask for mercy of those that got rid of him.

Stalin, now ruling Russia, will not let Trotzky return.

Fortunate Lenin, who died in time and lies embalmed under glass, for Russia to revere him.

If he were living he might be with Trotzky, philosophizing on the gratitude of revolution.

Alcoholic drinks under prohibition are various. In the South "white mule", powerful alcohol made of corn, is popular.

In the Middle West "needled" beer is drunk by workmen. It is "legal" beer, originally containing no alcohol, but brought up to a highly alcoholic percentage by "needling" it with alcohol, procured by redistilling denatured alcohol bought at gasoline stations.

New York speakeasies, surrounding newspaper and other plants, sell "smoke", a deadly alcohol with a little ether added to give the cloudy "smoke" effect. This drink is well described as follows: "Three shots and you know nothing until next day."

Doctors in New York discuss "How to Fight Old Age".

Dr. Vincent says doctors "concentrate on old people after they are ill, instead of keeping them well."

Luigi Cornaro solved his problem, starting at 40, when given up to die by doctors. He lived to 102, mounting his horse without assistance at 95, and wrote to the Pope: "I had to live to be 90 years old to know that the world is beautiful."

He limited his diet to 12 ounces of solid food and 14 ounces of light Italian wine per day. Think how long he might have lived if he had eliminated the 14 ounces of wine and substituted 14 ounces of good, pure, healthy, sparkling ice water.

President Coolidge and Postmaster General New deserve public thanks for constant development of the air mail.

On Monday morning a Fairchild mail plane left Hadley Field, N. J., driven by a 400-horse power Wasp motor. Stopping at Albany on the way, it delivered mail in Montreal before noon the same day.

Thus the air mail started between this country and our good Canadian neighbors.

P. J. Veniot, Canadian postmaster general, congratulating the American airmen, said Canada would catch up with the United States in aerial postal service. That is the competition that should exist between nations, friendly and constructive.

T. R. Preston, president of the American Bankers' Association, suggests: "A worldwide association of bankers to promote fuller comprehension of difficulties that beset every country."

Bankers might start with difficulties besetting Americans paying 7 1-2 to 10 per cent interest.

If New York banks would combine with banks in Paris, where the call money rate is 2 1-2 per cent, that would bring the average down considerably, and thousands of blessings would fall on Mr. Preston's head.

Now that th' kids are goin' t' school an' often dartin' out into th' street, better watch your step on it.

Example of calling the roll in politics: "Come here, roll; the boys are yelling for long green."

Aimee McPherson is in Paris and she is going around among the wild life in that city and commenting on its sinfulness. Aimee left a place near her home in this country that isn't so good either and she might find a lot to say about it's sinfulness without going to Paris. POLITICAL ORATION

Fellow Citizens:

I have heard a good deal about what Hoover and Smith intend to do for the farmers, but what I want to know is, what do these birds intend to do for the plumbers and steamfitters? There is a good deal of unrest among the farmers, due to low prices, woodticks, surplus production, wearing heavy underwear in summer, foreign competition, home brew, and other causes. But there is distress among the plumbers and steamfitters, too. I will guarantee to deliver their vote to any candidate who will insert the following in his platform, or to both candidates, in case they both do:

1. A law making three nights of the week Saturday night.
2. All bathing beauty contests to be held in bath tubs hereafter.
3. Public bathing beaches to be prohibited, and other unfair competition. All bathing to be done in a tub.
4. All plumbers and steamfitters to be guaranteed life, liberty and 25 per cent.
5. Compulsory hot and cold water in all hotels, garages, and the Great Lakes.
6. All municipal water and sewer systems to be taken up and relaid every year.
7. Possession of a pipe wrench by other than a plumber or steamfitter to be a misdemeanor.
8. A $500,000,000,000 flood control appropriation, the Mississippi to be piped to the Gulf.
9. To relieve traffic congestion, the following to be delivered through mains: milks, molasses, vinegar, and hard and soft coal.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

A NEW EMIGRATION

Paraguay, South America, is now the goal of one of the greatest migrations in human history—the trek of the Mennonites of Canada and the United States to the Paraguayan Chaco in search of liberty to worship God in their own manner, and freedom from military service.

More than 2,000 Mennonites from Canada established homesteads in the rich agricultural region west of the Upper Paraguay river during 1927. Roads and a railway are now being built through their territory, and several thousand more Mennonites are making preparations to go there before the end of 1928.

It is expected that within a few years more than 100,000 of these industrious, peace loving people will have settled on the 3,000,000 acres which have been set aside for them in Paraguay.

And then, in pursuit of the wealth which the Mennonites are famous for acquiting, will go many others not so peaceful and the same old story of Harmony and Economy will be repeated.

And many a night I lie awake

And since I don't like cake or tea,
White is anathema to me."

Governor Smith's Speech At Denver Stirs Up Conflicting Views

Democrats Generally Applaud Nominee's Stand On Waterpower; Republicans Attack What They Call Government Ownership Plea

Conflicting views on waterpower control and operation have been aired vigorously in newspaper discussion of Governor Smith's Denver speech. Republican critics almost unanimously condemn what they view as a declaration for government ownership and operations. Some Democrats also have misgivings on this point, but many greet the nominee's speech as a courageous stand on a great national issue.

"This is an issue and a vitally important issue, although few people seem to realize it," says the LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL (Ind.). "The Republicans and their nominees have ignored it so far. But the Democratic nominee is keenly cognizant of its significance—no one has better appreciated its significance since Theodore Roosevelt—and on it the governor of New York has made a great fight for the people of his state, and won for them a signal victory against powerful opposition."

"The water-power special interests are the most powerful in the land today," declares the OMAHA WORLD-HERALD (Ind.); "Smith marches boldly to fling defiance in their teeth, as David went to meet Goliath, with only the pebble of truth in his sling." The WATERBURY REPUBLICAN (Ind. Rep.) contends: "The desirability of public ownership and development of all future hydro-electric plants cannot be denied. It ought to be made a cardinal feature of the policies of the next administration, regardless of its political complexion." That paper concedes that Governor Smith's speech as a whole bears out the expectation that when he deals with subjects with which he has had to deal as a state official, he will demonstrate a thorough understanding of the suoject."

"He has nothing of the demagogue's spirit," according to the ATLANTA JOURNAL (Dem.), "in his challenge to those who would monopolize, for private profiteering, God-given resources as essential to the people's welfare as the air they breathe. Rather, he deals with the question as an economist would, or as an upright, far-seeing man of business, entrusted with the administration of a great state. * * * The outspokenness of Governor Smith reveals an ingrained honesty of mind that commends him to truth-loving people, while the clarity and vigor of his speeches show how thoroughly he understands the country's affairs."

"His position approaches dangerously to the principle of government operation," admits the HARTFORD TIMES (Ind. Dem.), which, on the other hand, suggests that "the country knows that a great power lobby, representing the vast power industry, has fought its hardest to prevent congress from adopting a bill providing for government development of Boulder Dam resources. * * * Even if at points Governor Smith approaches theories that are undesirable, it is infinitely safer for the American people to tie to him than to surrender to the power trust."

"The very boldness of the speaker, challenging the most tremendous and resourceful capitalistic group known to the history of the country," says the NASHVILLE BANNER (Ind.), must give to this address an influence and a place in the political history of the times quite apart from the circumstance, notable though it be, that it was the first to be made by any candidate for the presidency of the republic, on a subject which will stand to the very forefront of the political life of the nation until it is settled and settled right."

Charging that Governor Smith has made a "radical shift on the Colorado river problem," the NEW YORK SUN (Ind.) adds: "The Swing-Johnson crowd will boast now that their bill has won the support, in one degree or another, of both candidates for president. * * * Governor Smith has flung into the discard his brave statement at Albany that in the Colorado river case, 'the duty of the federal government is confined to navigation'."

Condemnation of the governor's position as favorable to government activity in business comes from the SPRINGFIELD UNION (Rep.), SPRINGFIELD ILLINOIS STATE JOURNAL (Rep.), PROVIDENCE BULLETIN (Ind.) and OKLAHOMA CITY TIMES (Ind.).

"It will alarm the conservative elements of the nation everywhere," in the opinion of the SPOKANE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW (Rep.) while the HARTFORD COURANT (Ind. Rep.) states that "his plain intimations that he would have signed two bills (Muscle Shoals and McNary-Haugen) will undoubtedly prove gravely harmful to his cause." The CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE (Rep.) holds that "Governor Smith's views on power are all the reason that any business man, any man of experience in the ways of government, could ask for voting against him."

"It is quite possible," suggests the CHARLESTON EVENING POST (Ind. Dem.), "that Governor Smith may have lost by these concessions to western radicalism—if so it may be defined—the favor he was supposed to have won in the business world. He doubtless knows what he is about and has weighed these considerations, but they cannot be left out of account."

The CHARLOTTE NEWS (Dem.) warns that "the people of the south are sticklers for the theory that the least the government gets into business and the more that business gets into government, the better off the country will be."

"No one familiar with the power problem," states the LINCOLN STATE JOURNAL (Ind. Rep.), "will accept as a solution of it the substitution of government ownership of site and generating station for regulation, when the larger items of cost of service would be under the control of the private capital he says should take care of distribution." The LOWELL COURIER-CITIZEN (Ind.) suggests that "the public ownership idea ought to work but doesn't and never will, so long as men are human and politicians what they are."

Suggestions that further information is desired as to Mr. Hoover's position on this subject are made by the BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE (Ind.), ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH (Ind.), NEWARK EVENING NEWS (Ind.) CANTON DAILY NEWS (Ind. Dem.) and YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR (Dem.) The HOUSTON CHRONICLE (Dem.) reviews the history of the power problem, stating: "Thirteen years ago, a man predicted that greater than the long struggle of this country to break up the monopoly in oil production, would be the task, some day, to hold away from private exploitation the public water power of the country, converted into electrical energy. That man was a Republican. He was a great Republican. And he was also a patriot. His name was Theodore Roosevelt * * * No man, except a great leader of the people, a fighter and a true defender of public rights, can break up the water-power menace and restore to the people of this country the rightful and economical use and enjoyment of this great public resource, which belongs to them alone. Such a man is Governor Smith."

"From Chairman Work's statement," says the COLUMBUS OHIO STATE JOURNAL (Rep.), "we judge that Mr. Hoover holds the same view as Governor Smith), and we hope that great engineer will make a speech on the subject before the campaign is over." The SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN (Ind.) argues: "Mr. Hoover 'came through' unequivocally for the power development as provided in the Johnson-Swing bill. And that is all specifically that Governor Smith has done. One must conclude, however, that, from the progressive point of view, broadly considered, Governer Smith is preferable to Mr. Hoover on the power issue."

Dr. Crane's Editorial

WORLD PEACE

Mr. Jules Sauerwein, foreign editor of the Paris Matin, says in regard to the Kellogg compact: "The United States takes a world-wide responsibility of which she has shunned the risk for the last ten years."

By this compact, he claims, the United States government becomes the moral guardian of the status quo created by the peace treaty and subsequent treaties.

He says that one should not underestimate the responsibilities and duties of the United States.

What does this mean? Is the United States really coming into the League of Nations through the back door?

Will the senate, alarmed by the possibility of the United States "meddling with European politics," reject the arrangement of Mr. Kellogg as it rejected the plans of Mr. Wilson?

The country is now in the throes of a political campaign. It is well known that both Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Hoover were at one time favorable toward Mr. Wilson's scheme.

It is to be hoped that no appeal to national vanity or chauvinism will interrupt the successful progress of Mr. Kellogg.

Unless we miss our guess, the people of the United States want no more war and are persuaded that they can attain this object only by some sort of agreement among the leading nations of the world.

How that agreement shall be reached they do not care.

As they used to pray at revival meetings, "Lord, send salvation by whom thou wilt, but send salvation."

If we can just have peace let anybody crow that wants to, and let anybody that wants to say "I told you so."

At any rate it is significant that the leading nations of the world are anxious to talk peace. Nations have found out that war does not pay. It costs too much human life and money even to the victors.

It is a far cry from this state of things to the old days when every young man expected some time to be a soldier. The young men are just as brave and self-sacrificing as they ever were. But they don't care for fighting as a trade.

It is sincerely to be hoped that people will forget their personal animosity and bury their personal grievances and partisan heats long enough to let this new compact go through.

The matter of world peace should never have been a partisan question in the first place. It is a national question and should receive the support of all citizens of whatever party.

Rockford To Stockholm Fliers Sail On Liner Today For New York

(International News Service)

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 4.—Bert Hassell and Parker Cramer, American aviators who flew from Rockford, Ill., to Greenland where they wandered in the wilderness for two weeks after a forced landing, sailed for New York today aboard the liner Frederick Eighth.

They expect to go to Rockford immediately after reaching New York. Their plane was left on the Greenland coast, but it may be salvaged unless it is too badly injured by the storms which frequently sweep that region.

Hassell and Cramer planned to fly from Rockford to Stockholm but were forced down by lack of fuel.

Dear Sir:—

Allow me to correct a mistake in your paper of today's date re the Grab Bag.

The lady whose picture is shown is indeed Queen Victoria of Spain, but it is her cousin who is King George of England, not her nephew, as stated.

The queen of Spain's mother is Princess Beatrice, the youngest daughter of the late Queen Victoria of England. Consequently King Edward was the queen of Spain's uncle and King George her cousin.

Your very truly,
EDWARD C. GATRALL.

Coke Production Displays Gain In Weekly Loadings

(International News Service)

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 4—Coke operators of the Connellsville region reported another healthy gain in production for the week ending September 29—a total of 2,830 tons, a survey by International News Service revealed today.

In a fortnight output has increased 6,460 tons. With the firing this week of 657 ovens at plants of the H. C. Frick Coke company, a further increase seems probable, since all of last week's gain was in merchant plants while there was a loss of 50 tons at furnace operations. The total output for the week was 22,320 tons.

In the face of slow but steady decreases for several weeks the prices of furnace coke has remained unchanged at $2.75. That price is firmly maintained, however, and with continued advances in production, it is believed there will be an upward trend in the price.

It is reported that more ovens are to be ordered into blast by the Frick company

(Inheritance Taxes) No. 5 on Ballot

Proposing an Amendment to Section one, Article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

This Amendment will allow tax laws to be made which will grant exemptions in the case of inheritance taxes. Now we have a flat rate of 2 per cent on direct inheritance and 10 per cent on collateral.

Many economists claim that a heavy inheritance tax is bad because it taxes thrift. Why place a penalty on the peoples' small savings. It is discouraging to say the least.

I have always held that a widow with an estate of a few hundred dollars should be exempt from inheritance tax.

The Amendment reads, In the case of inheritance taxes, exemptions as to subjects of taxation or as to amount may be granted by general laws, also to exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes: actual places of religious worship, places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, and institutions of purely public charity.

It will be necessary for the people to register their approval before the General Assembly can act.

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

FOOD AT ALL COSTS

"Albatross was comforted at once, just as Cormorant had hoped he would be, and greatly delighted as well.

"'That puts an entirely different face upon the matter,' declared the captive. 'I am ashamed of myself for being so sulky. I will make friends with the very next sailor that comes near me. But after all how was I to know what they wanted me for?

"'And wouldn't you have been mad if you had run into a hook when you expected meat? My mouth still aches from the old thing. I believe it is cut a little. But that don't matter so much now that I know that the Two-Legs regard me so highly One thing worries me, though. Do you think I'll get enough to eat?'

"At the question Cormorant chuckled.

"'Still worying about your stomach,' said he. 'I sould think that you would forget food for a while when it was really "eats" that got you into all this trouble.'

"'No matter what might happen to me, I could not stop wishing for something to nibble on,' cried Albatross. 'I should not be a real Albatross if I could. I am a bit ashamed of myself, but I can't help it.' Albatross sadly shook his head. Cormorant chuckled again.

"'Well, don't feel downcast over it. If eating will make you happy you are going to be a very joyous bird.

"'I heard the sailors say that they were going to feed you all that you could possibly devour. I am only afraid that you will become ill from stuffing. But you asked me who I am and why I am here, so I will tell you.'

"Cormorant then went on to explain all that had happened that day, and he and Albatross became so interested in the story that neither of them noticed Bill, the sailor, until he was almost upon them. Frightened, Cormorant soared high into the rigging, then curious to know what the fellow was going to say, he hung head-downward, to listen. With his first words Cormorant knew that Albatross had a true friend on board.

"'Come my beautiful one, do not sulk any longer,' said Bill, in a tone

CURIOUS TO KNOW WHAT THE FELLOW WAS GOING TO SAY HE HUNG HEAD-DOWNWARD TO LIST

so kind that it made Cormorant's heart throb. No Two-Legs had ever spoken to him like that—perhaps no Two-Legs ever would. Silly Cormorant actually envied the attention Albatross was receiving."

Gas On Stomach Is Dangerous

Bisurated Magnesia Gives Speedy Relief or Money Back

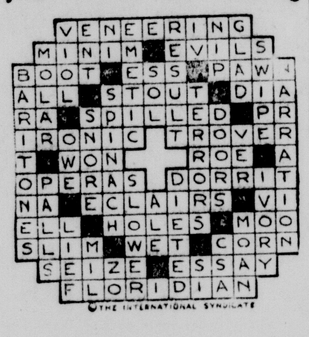

Gas, Pain, Bloating and a feeling of fullness after eating are almost certain evidence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach.

Too much acid irritates the delicate stomach lining, frequently causing chronic Gastritis and dangerous Ulcers. Food ferments and sours, forming a gas that distends the stomach and often seriously affects the Heart.

It is genuine folly to neglect such a condition or to treat with artificial digestive aids that cannot neutralize the stomach acid. A better way is to get from McKee's Kut Rate, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., or any reliable drug store some Bisurated Magnesia (powder or tablets) and take a little after each meal. This famous but simple and inexpensive stomach sweetener and anti-acid can be depended upon to prove its value in less than five minutes or the druggist is authorized to promptly return your money. Pleasant and perfectly harmless to use—Bisurated Magnesia does give wonderful relief in nine out of ten cases. Ask your Doctor or Druggist.

Insists His Discovery Opens Up Catarrh Stuffed Nostrils In Three Minutes-Sometimes Less

Advises All Catarrh Victims to Throw Away Stomach Medicines. End Loathsome Catarrh with Opex and Get Rid of Disgusting Mucus Forever.

30 Days Free Trial Says McKee's Kut Rate

Catarrh, one of the most loathsome of diseases, is caused by germs—wicked, vicious, persistent pests that multiply rapidly and by digging into and devouring the tender membrane cause soreness, swelling, inflammation and mucous discharges.

A few years ago, Catarrh was considered incurable, because no one was clever enough to get a formula that would spread over the membranes of the nasal tract a purifying substance in which catarrh germs could not exist.

But Opex changed all that and now all you have to do to get rid of catarrh is to spray on Opex and send the germs to eternity.

Just note the picture showing how Opex puts catarrh out of business. See the steam-like smoke going in one nostril and out the other.

When you use Opex you see the healing, purifying vapor as fine as smoke coming thru the nostrils—and it will come thru no matter how stuffed up they are.

That's the way to end catarrh and to lessen those annoying, ringing, buzzing noises in the ears. Many people say it is the only way.

The price of a bottle of Opex that will last two months is $1.00—it is easily worth one hundred dollars to any man or woman who wants clean healthy nostrils free from disgusting mucus.

Opex will end the most stubborn case of catarrh in a few days, because it soothes and heals the sore, inflamed membranes, reduces the swelling and purifies the entire nasal tract.

To make it easy for catarrh sufferers in this vicinity to secure a bottle of Opex and a specially constructed Opex atomizer, McKee's Cut Rate store has agreed to keep a supply on hand at all times and will gladly show any one how easy it is to get rid of disgusting catarrh at trifling cost.

Opex is for sale only at McKee's Kut Rate store with the distinct understanding that if you are not satisfied at the end of 30 days your money will be gladly returned. Opex is delightful to use because of its Wholesome fragrance. Mail orders promptly filled by McKee's Kut Rate store, 21 North Mill St.

CREDIT METHODS SURVEY LAUNCHED IN NEW CASTLE

Hall To Manage National Credit Survey For Lawrence County

Questionaires have now been mailed to the merchants of the city and county, states Ray Hall, manager of the New Castle Credit exchange and key man for the national department of commerce survey, pertaining to the nation wide credit survey which is being made by the National Retail Credit association with the United States Department of Commerce.

Mr. Hall asks that all of the merchants fill in the blanks that have been mailed through the local exchange so that complete data may be obtained from this district. Questionaires were mailed to all merchants regardless of the size of their business or the nature of it. Every retail dealer will receive one of the questionaires states Mr. Hall.

The object of the survey is to get figures regarding the credit systems employed by merchants throughout the entire nation so that statistics can be compiled by the Department of Comerce regarding the credit business of the country. It is a national movement by the government, this attempt at gleaning information concerning credit and the questionaires should be filled in and returned immediately.

Following the survey it will be known just what credit systems are being employed throughout the country. The information obtained by the government will be for the use of every one whether they be affiliated with any credit exchange or not.

It is thought that the returns from the survey will indicate a stabalizing of business for the retail trade. Up until this time states Mr. Hall no survey has been made on credit conditions and little information is known concerning the credit fields of the country as a whole.

Mr. Hall of the New Castle Credit Exchange organization composed of local merchants is in charge of the survey for Lawrence county.

Sabbath Schools Are Requested To Report Delegates

Credentials Should Be Issued At Once, Says County Secretary

Some of the Sabbath school superintendents have not reported the delegates from their schools to the 66th annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association which is to be held in Philadelphia next week—October 10, 11, 12 and they are urged to notify the county secretary as soon as possible so that the credentials may be issued.

A number of the Sabbath schools are sending two paid delegates and every Sabbath school is urged to send at least one paid delegate. The cost of sending a delegate is roughly speaking $35 and this is an investment in Christian education that will bring splendid returns. As evidence of this the state president, Percy L. Craig and the county president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., were at the opening of the Community Training school in Sharon, Mr. Craig being one of the speakers.

Attorney Brockway, the Mercer county president, stated that the reason that Mercer county had been successfully conducting these training schools for the past 11 years was due to the fact that he attended conferences at a state convention where Dr. M. A. Honline presented the idea and gave the method of procedure and instruction.

The following are those who have received credentials in this county for the convention in Philadelphia next week:

Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Craig, Rev. C. J. Williamson and daughter Miss Lois, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Martin, Robt. M. Strickler, Jr., Rev. Samuel Maitland, Mrs. C. C. Coulthard, Mrs. William J. Hurry Up! Taste This New Cereal-Food!

Even if Heinz Rice Flakes had nothing but their crispy, crunchy goodness and toasty nut-like flavor—you'd be glad to eat them.

But they have more than that. They have the natural "roughage" content of the original rice. This gives these fairy-like flakes the properties of a gentle, natural laxative—and helps keep you in "the pink of health."

An entirely new process in cereal-making is responsible for this wonderful new food and Heinz owns the process. In no other cereal can you get the particular health qualities—or the flavor—of Heinz Rice Flakes. They're fine for everybody.

Hundreds At Big Revival

Evangelist Erickson Delivers Stirring Sermon At Tabernacle Wednesday

PRODIGAL SON IS TONIGHT'S THEME

That there is a rapidly growing and increasing interest in the revival and healing services now in progress at Everybody's Tabernacle, South Mill street, between Division and Friendship streets, was again evidenced Wednesday evening, when hundreds of people from every section of the city and of many races and creeds, gathered there to join in the revival service conducted by Evangelist C. H. Erickson.

Taking as his text the 27th verse of the Fifth Chapter of Daniel, Evangelist Erickson delivered a powerful and convincing sermon based on these words "Thou Art Weighed in the Balances, and Art Found Wanting".

"Method of God and the people of this earth in weighing others are entirely different" said the Evangelist. "Outward appearances, the actions of, and the amount of money that a person may have accummulated are the principal factors that we use in judging others. We value fellow man by those things of a temporal nature."

God's Method.

"God don't weigh us in that manner. He finds or determines our status according to the 'light we have had'. In the story from which the text is taken, Daniel draws attention of Belshazzer to the fact that God had humbled his father Nebuchadnezzar, when he became hardened of heart and thought himself mightier than the power that made him. Knowing this, Belshazzar had grown boastful and forgetful. There for the judgment of God in the case of Belshazzar was greater than that against his father, who had not known those things, known to Belshazzar."

After the sermon, the invitation was given to come forward and it was not long until quite a number of persons, including a number of children, had advanced to the altar and kneeling down, showed their desire to live a new and better life, through acknowledgement of Jesus Christ as their lord and saviour.

Then came the period of the services devoted to the anointing of those, who are seeking relief from their bodily ills. Some six or seven persons, suffering from various ailments, many of long standing, were anointed, while prayer in their behalf was made by Evangelist Erickson. There was an elderly woman unable to come forward, who when anointed and prayed with, expressed some relief and scores of persons in the tabernacle agreed to add their prayers to those of the evangelist to endeavor to make her recovery more and more complete.

Congregational Singing.

The service was opened with congregational revival singing and the response of the audience under the magnetic leadership of Mrs. Erickson, was unusually fine and inspiring Wednesday night.

The Alliance Quintette (colored) rendered several of their inspirational devotional revival vocal selections during the services, which were received with pronounced enthusiasm.

Evangelist Erickson will on Thursday evening demonstrate his ability as a soloist as well as a preacher and the service will take the form of a preaching singing exposition of the story of "The Prodigal Son", with the evangelist bringing home to his congregation this touching Biblical story and its promises to those, who have strayed but return to the teachings of Christ.

In the evangelistic services conducted by Evangelist Erickson, the outstanding appeal is the promise that the Bible conveys to those, who are suffering, that if they but believe in Christ, that they may hope to recover.

Friday night, the most important phase of the healing of those, who have faith, will be explained by the evangelist in his sermon entitled "Healing In The Atonement".

All services start at 7:30 p. m.

THE SMALLER THE TOWN—

The more necessary it is to live above suspicion.

The easier it is for a small man to pose as the leading citizen.

The more ready the folk are with sympathy or criticism.

The more necessary it is to be charitable.

The easier it is to make friends who will last a lifetime.

The more surprised the home folk are if he turns out to be a great man.

The more jealousy God has to forgive.

Another thing the common citizen pays for without realizing it is the privilege of staying away from the polls.

"Kiss Me Officer!" Says Woman While She Blocks Traffic

A rather interesting story is told concerning a traffic incident at Washington and East streets.

A well known traffic officer was on duty at the time.

A woman came up in a car, just as the traffic light turned red. She stopped. When the light turned green, for some reason she did not get started and the officer on duty there went to the car to find out what was the matter.

As he approached, the car seemed to be going backward and forward and he found that the woman at the wheel was endeavoring to make the starter work.

When he neared the car, the woman, all excited and nervous is alleged to have said "Officer, dont bawl me out! Kiss Me! Kiss Me!"

It is stated on good authority that the officer, a veteran of the force did not accept the invitation, but did see to it that the car got under way and the blockade in traffic cleared up.

Pittsburgh Ghost No Longer Haunts

Calvary Cemetery Spook Turns Out To Be String Of Lights

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 4.—There was once a ghost in the vicinity of Calvary cemetery, but like all other ghosts it has been relegated to the realm of mythical entities.

This supernatural being gained such fame throughout the city that the police department was called to make its acquaintance. But before the police arrived Superintendent of the Cemetery James A. Devlin and the officials of the Duquesne Light Company "had its number". Here's how Devlin explained the ghost:

"The light company a short time ago installed a string of new lights in Erny street. There is a bush in front of one of the tombstones where the 'ghost' is always seen and the lights reflected on this tombstone. This bush waving to and fro in the breeze across the path of light gives the light that wavering, lifelike gleam."

Big Ulcer All Healed

"Now I Can Walk" Says Mrs. Southcott

"Here is another letter that makes me proud," says Peterson. "One that I would rather have than a thousand dollars."

"It seems like a miracle, but it's true, every word of it.

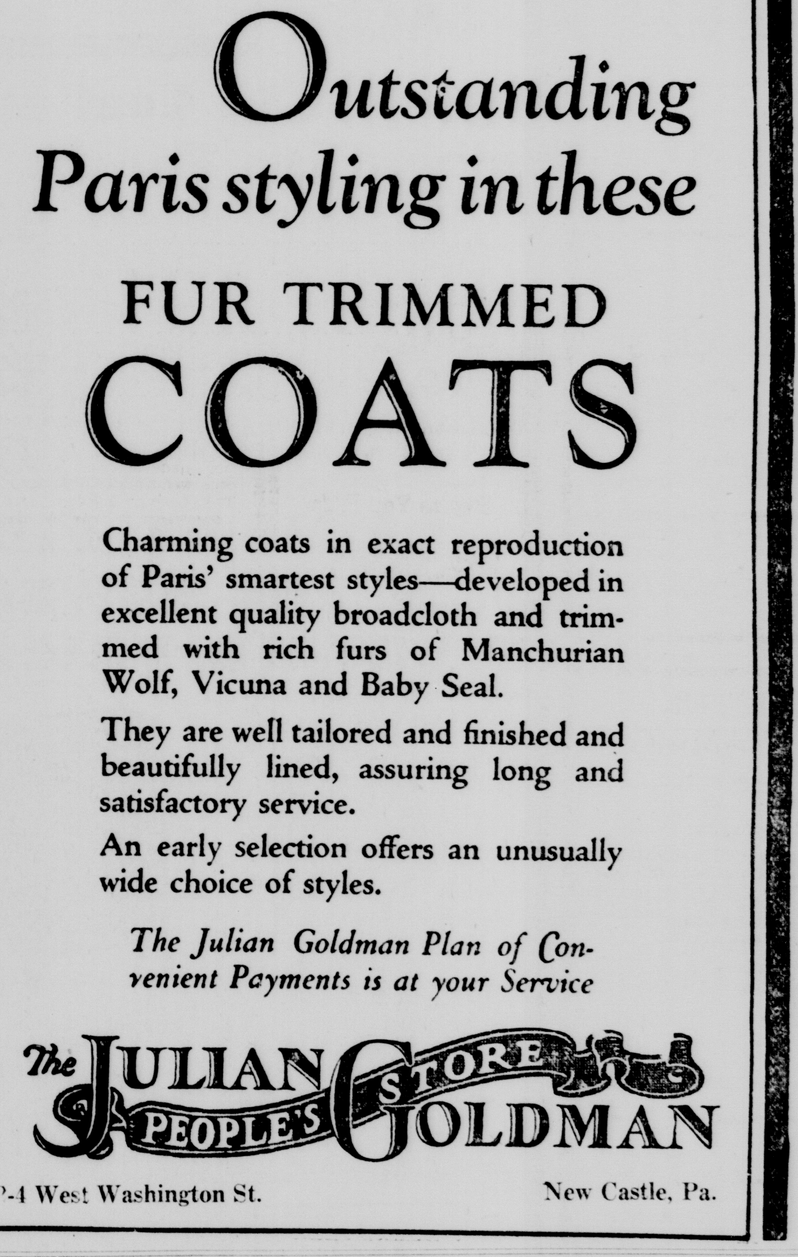

I know it because I get similar letters almost every day from people who have used Peterson's ointment for old sores, eczema and piles.

"Is it any wonder I am proud?"

Dear Sirs:

"I was an untold sufferer from an old running sore and ulcer. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and the first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just nine dollars worth of the salve I am cured. The ulcer was 2 inches by 6½ inches, is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again.

"You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish. I cannot say enough to praise it." Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott, Lyndonville, N. Y. Generous box 25 cents.

Ticket "Scalpers" Reaping Harvest In New York City

Price Of Tickets For World's Series Games Mounts As High As $125

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—World series ticket speculators were garnering their golden harvest along Broadway and throughout the hotel belt today, and as the hours advanced toward game time, so did the prices mount.

Reserved seat pasteboards are marked in large figures —$16.50—but the ducats, which had been plentiful at $25 early in the week were regarded as dirt cheap at $35 when the "specs" started trading furtively in the lobbies and along the curbs $50 was not an unusual price. In fact choice positions were reported retailing at $125 the pair.

The demand was far in excess of the supply, and at 9 o'clock, an hour before the gates opened, the scalpers were offering $25 a ticket themselves, figuring on a 100 per cent profit.

YANKEES - CARDINALS BATTLE IN FIRST GAME BEFORE CROWD OF 80,000

whose every pulse beat the same refrain:

"Come On, You Yankees."

It once was a popular pose here to echo fair words of encouragement to the visiting nine, the idea being that the great mass of sportsmanship thus was advanced. But today, with the Yankees the short end of the betting odds of 7 to 5, with Pennock and Combs, keymen of the pitching staff and outfield, on the sidelines, and Lazzeri playing second base with one arm and a half, the raving, ranting stands were slightly more than 90 per cent sympathetic to the Yankee cause.

Thus, with the day and the situation made to order, attendance records weren't worth a dime a dozen. The crowd of 80,000 defeated all previous game records by many thousands. Two years ago the populace paid $201,828 to see the same teams play the second game of a series at the same stadium. Today it was estimated that the intake might be as much as $250,000. And finally, if the series went seven games, it was likely that the total receipts would touch $1,250,000, and another record.

Ticket Speculators Busy

A record that will not appear on the books had to do with the unseemly activities of the ticket speculators, who had choice tickets bulging from every pocket. They were asking and getting $50 for a series of three local tickets, originally priced at $16.50, and not the least of the fortunes that were to be made out of this annual frenzy seemed destined for the jackals.

The covered stands, too, were filling steadily when the teams came on the field at noon to be received with glad glee, largely because boredom was rampant. There is nothing quite so tedious as the stage-wait that precedes a big moment.

Yankees Out First.

The Yankees were the first to step out for hitting practice, this business being good for another mixed chorus from the villagers. Hoyt took his place in the batting cage at the end of the regular order thus affirming almost officially his choice as Huggins' starting pitcher.

The left hander caused a momentary stir by stepping out to the warm up box and floating a couple to Pat Collins but he gave it up and the watching Cardinals nodded approving heads. They have not forgotten his pitching in the 1926 series nor will they forget it.

Ruth and Gehrig each deposited a couple in the right field stands during the general excitement and George Harper repeated the gesture during the Cardinal workout at the plate.

Willie Sherdel was among the hitters, so the average expert, who guarantees to look through a keyhole and see an elephant distinctly were sustained again. Sherdel, who opened the 1926 series, was to do so again, they said.

The Cardinals showed plenty of pep during their fielding practices. Tommy Thevenow, at short, was gobbling up grounders with neatness and dispatch, but the star of the 1926 series was not slated to see action in today's game.

When the Yankees took the field for practice at 1:05, the injured Lazzeri was at second, with Paschal in center and Dugan on third.

Babe Ruth was given a rousing ovation by his public in bleachers when he trotted out in right field.

At 1:15, the Yankees left the field and the groundkeepers started giving the infield a final polish. Hoyt and Sherdel began warming up.

Miss Daisy Trout Speaker At Meeting In Central Church

Head Of Missionary Organizations To Deal With Present Day Problems

MISS DAISY TROUT

Extended preparations are being made by the Central Christian church, corner of Long and Pennsylvania avenue, under the leadership of their untiring pastor, Jesse B. Porter, to entertain the one-day missionary convention next Monday. Sessions are being held at 10 a. m., 1 p. m. and the evening session will begin at 6:30. The evening's program will be given around the banquet table with an address by a missionary.

The personnel of the team is Miss Daisy June Trout who is the leader. Miss Trout is the head of the Missionary organizations of the United Christian Missionary society, Indianapolis, Indiana. She has a commanding position, because of her personality, unusual energy and foresight and good judgment and is a forceful speaker with a statesmanlike message that deals with the present day problems of the church in a practical way.

There is also with the team, Dr. Elliot I. Osgood, a returned missionary who for nearly thirty years practiced medicine at Chuchow, China. His last task before returning to the United States was a long and hazardous trip to Batang on the border of Tibet that required nearly a year. Besides this he has written a number of splendid books.

The last but not least is Marion H. Duncan who had an unparalleled experience with his family on their returning home when they were robbed of everything including food and clothing, by armed bandits far from civilization, and from the resultant exposure and other hardships of the journey, Mrs. Duncan has not recovered.

Declares Relief Ten Herbs Gave Was Wonderful

New Castle Lady So Vastly Benefited Even Friends Note Great Change.

"Ten Herbs has given me wonderful relief," was the recent statement of Mrs. Ora Kennedy, 2215 Hartman street, New Castle, to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this popular preparation to crowds of men and women.

MRS. ORA KENNEDY

"Before using your medicine, I was alarmed at the way my health was slipping away," Mrs. Kennedy continued. "I suffered with indigestion. After eating, I would have great pain and discomfort. Gas would form, and I would feel as though I might vomit. I was terribly constipated—sometimes would go for days before getting relief. My liver became very sluggish, causing sick headaches. My skin was sallow, having large 'liver spots.' There were aches and pains in my back, and at times I felt so bad that life hardly seemed worth living.

"A neighbor induced me to try Ten Herbs, as I was willing to try almost anything for relief. As a result, my appetite is good, and I have been relieved of gas and other distress caused by indigestion. My liver has been helped so much that my skin has become clear. The pain has left my back, and my sleep is sound and restful. I really look like a different woman, and even friends have remarked about the great change for the better that has come over me. Ten Herbs has benefited me so much that I cannot say too much in praise of your medicine."

More and more people of this section are reporting how Ten Herbs has relieved them of such ailing conditions as indigestion, gas, bloating, biliousness, dizziness, headaches, nervousness, pains and aches in the back, constipation, rheumatism, neuritis, and weak, run-down feeling.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Make Plans For River Pageant

Plans For Ohio River Pageant Next Year Are Talked Over In Pittsburgh

FIFTY NEW LOCKS WILL BE DEDICATED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 4.—Plans for a mammouth celebration with elaborate pageantry and a colorful steamboat parade from Pittsburgh to the Mississippi in honor of the formal opening and dedication of 50 locks and dams in a stretch of 951 miles of the Ohio river next year, assumed definite proportions today in the final session of the Ohio Valley Improvement association's 34th annual convention here.

Assured by Colonel George R. Spalding corps of engineers of the United States army, that the Ohio will be canalized its entire length within the next 12 months, delegates to the convention enthusiastically pursued their plans for the river celebration.

Speakers listed for today's closing session included Jeff Williams, president of the Green River Improvement association, Evansville, Ind.; Walter S. Hallahan, Great Kanawha Valley Improvement association, Charleston, W. Va.; Lachlan Macleay, secretary of the Mississippi Valley association, St. Louis; George A. Cooper, secretary of the Little Kanawha River Improvement association; Congressman Louis T. McFadden, chairman on banking and finance, house of representatives, Washington, and S. A. Thompson, secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, Washington.

The completed Ohio river, according to Colonel Harley Ferguson of Cincinnati, in charge of the central division, will cost approximately $115,000 per mile. The total cost of improving the Ohio and its tributaries, he said, has been about $150,000,000.

His friend managed to learn his home address and notified his mother, who wrote back for her to turn him over to the police until she could arrive.

Unfortunately the local woman advised the boy of the situation and he is again missing. He has fair hair, weighs about 74 pounds and was wearing a dark gray sweater, blue pants and brown shoes, when he left. The police here are making an effort to locate him.

Seeking Probe Of G. O. P. Funds

Democrats Attempt To Start Probe Of Republican Fund

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Democratic national campaign managers have agreed upon a determined effort to bring about an investigation of the Hoover campaign by the Special Campaign Funds Investigating committee of the House of Representatives.

Should the House committee decide at its meeting in Washington tomorrow that there is no evidence warranting the inquiry, an effort will be made to bring the Senate Campaign Fund committee together.

Representative Loring M. Black of New York, a Democratic member of the House committee, which was set up in the closing days of the last session of Congress, is in charge of the case for the Democratic National committee.

Black said he had no evidence of improper expenditures by the Republican campaign. He will present a vigorous plea, however, for a general inquiry into the source of funds for the pamphlet campaign attacking Governor Smith's religion, his Tammany record and his prohibition stand.

"I have no evidence connecting this campaign directly with the Republican National committee," Black said today, "but I am convinced an investigation would establish such a connection. Even if it did not, the committee is duty bound to protect the country from the fraud which this pamphlet campaign involves. These statements about Governor Smith are in many cases absolutely and palpably false, since they involve pleas for money, they constitute fraud and the use of the mails to obtain money under false pretenses."

Growing Children

sometimes require a tonic as do their elders ★

GIVE your child the right chance to develop, and you will not regret it in later years.

Many children become under-nourished due to lack of appetite. Keep the appetite keen. Food nourishes the body and makes it grow.

Also watch Nature's warning for changes in the system. Skin troubles—pimples, boils and that sallow complexion—all foretell a body weakness.

In such cases, S.S.S. is the proper tonic. It improves the appetite; helps Nature build rich, red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

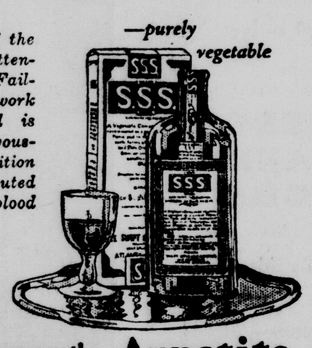

In building rich, red blood cells, S.S.S. improves the processes by which the body is nourished.

For more than 100 years, S.S.S. has been helping children and their elders regain strength and vitality.

Children like S.S.S. It is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants, and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory.

★ The physical welfare of the child is being given more attention by school authorities. Failure to keep up with class work and absence from school is probably due to a nervousness and run-down condition that may be largely attributed to a deficiency in red blood cells.

Pears Explains Community Chest

Chest Idea Saves Time, Energy And Useless Expenditure, Says Director

TEN AGENCIES WILL BENEFIT BY DRIVE

For economy in time and money, for efficiency in action, the Community Chest method of securing funds for the social service organizations of a city is perhaps the most practicable way, and it is used in almost every city throughout these United States, declared Herbert Pears, director of this year's Community Chest, in an interview this morning.

"I believe that no stronger proof is needed to show that the Community Chest idea is by far the best way to secure these needed funds," continues Mr. Pears. "What is practiced all over the country must of itself be proof enough. By the coordination of all of the interests, through one campaign, there is a saving of time, a conservation of man power and, best of all, there is much less annoyance to everyone concerned, whether a worker or not.

"The public spirited citizens who work in the campaign know that there is to be but one drive and they are happy because of it. They know that they can put forth their most earnest efforts for there will be no further work to do for a year. On the other hand, the citizens know that when they have contributed to the chest they have done their duty for a year and they will not be approached until the next chest campaign is under way.

"In giving to the chest, the only consideration of the citizens is the need of the funds for which the agencies ask. The conditions in the city are not a matter of consideration.

"The help of the citizens is needed in this work more than ever this year. The money asked for is needed. This is the one thing that the citizen should always remember: and it is needed for the cause of humanity. And he can rest assured that the money will be sufficiently handled and wisely spent; it is the citizens' money, ready to do the things that they, in their hearts, want done.

"The reputation of New Castle is precious. It expresses, in a large measure, the character and responsibility of the citizens as a whole. New Castle never has failed, and this year the opportunity is present for the people to express their belief in a substantial way.

"The Community Chest is for the benefit of ten deserving agencies; the campaign is under way and New Castle must not fail if the citizens desire to uphold the prestige that already has been built up about the city.

"Belief in a city is more than boasting about it or standing on the side lines exercising the vocal cords. Real civic patriotism goes deep enough to reach the pocketbook, for when it does touch the heart, it loosens the purse strings."

Rats Seemed To Know Big Elevator Was About To Fall

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 4.—Several hours before the big grain elevator in Cranmer, Man., collapsed Saturday, rats, which had infested the structure since it was first filled with grain, commenced to pour out of it by hundreds.

The elevator had 50,000 bushels of wheat and 5,000 of barley in its bins. The rats commenced to leave early in the evening, and boys with rifles had much sport picking them off as they emerged. Shortly after midnight the building went down with a crash that could be heard for miles.

The collapse was caused by the basement giving way. The entire structure then toppled, the roof being hurled 200 feet across the railway tracks, smashing telephone poles and wires in its flight. Grain and debris blocked the railway line to a depth of twelve feet, and men were busy all day Sunday shoveling the grain away.

The structure was not loaded to within many tons of its capacity.

Thrifty Squirrel Buries Peanuts On Court House Lawn

"You don't have to teach a squirrel thrift" observed County Commissioner Philip Elder this morning, as he watched a fox squirrel storing away peanuts on the court house lawn. The squirrel, known as a fox squirrel, occupies a little bungalow that has been placed up in the branches of one of the big maples in front of the court house. It is said to have three little baby squirrels in the bungalow. Some one had thrown some peanuts on the lawn. The mother squirrel was industriously gathering up the peanuts and burying them in the ground for future use. When she wants food she will go and dig up the peanuts.

"Behind Scenes" Has Fascination For Chicagoans

Boob Catching Joints, Faked Atmosphere, Take Edge From Slumming

GAS JET FRIED EGGS NO LONGER ENJOYED

Electricity Puts Bar To Gas Jet Cooking; Now Must Hunt Restaurant

By IONE QUINBY
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch To New Castle News

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Peeping behind the scenes molds a peculiar fascination for the majority of Chicagoans, from the society dowager in the diamond horseshoe who yearns to see Faust backstage, to the eager Y. W. C. A. girl who wants to view life. Life, teeming in the big city, is its real self back stage. There, among realistic props, it divests itself of the camouflage and veneer of atmosphere with which it must be served to the public.

The so-called yokel who visits Chicago isn't half as curious, as a rule, to see what makes the wheels go 'round as the native-born Chicagoan who has been accustomed all his life to the veneer of the metropolis. To satisfy this native curiosity there are numerous channels through which Chicagoans and others may see behind scenes.

For years slumming parties to the underworld districts, Chinese dens, Black Belt cafes and so on were supposed to be the popular means of satisfying the yen of the fashionable and other Chicagoans to see how the other half lived and worked. Expose of fake atmosphere, such as opium dens that proved not to be opium dens at all, but places fitted up with Chinese whose long mustaches and pigtails pulled off, have put the taboo on some of the old places now commonly termed "Boob-catching Joints" and the edge is off of slumming.

The old standby of the poor working girl—eggs fried over gas jets and coffee made impromptu in one's hall room—is a luxury no longer enjoyed since electricity came in, and so the girl who would eat must collect her pennies and hie to the nearest restaurant. She will probably eat sandwiches at 10 cents apiece until she never wants to look a sandwich in the face, and the holes in her stockings become nightmares.

Only One Toll Road In State

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 4.—After today there will be only one toll road in Pennsylvania.

Howard W. Fry, executive secretary of the Department of Highways expects to finish negotiations for transfer of the Lancaster and Fruitville Turnpike in Lancaster county. The price of the road will be $8,500 of which the state will pay $5,000.

The section was included in the omnibus road bill passed by the 1925 legislature, but due to an error could not be acquired by the department until after it had been corrected by the last legislature.

The remaining toll road is the new Holland Turnpike in Lancaster county. It was included in the omnibus road bill passed by the last session. Engineers are now making a valuation study of it and it also will be acquired by the state if a satisfactory agreement can be reached with the owners.

Chester Conklin Star Of 'Big Noise'

For several years Chester Conklin has gone along clowning his way through pictures, aiding others to stardom but just missing it himself. Now Chester is up in the big lights, and his debut as a first class, full fledged star is in Ben Hecht's screen story, 'Big Noise".

The picture has been a riot in New York, and Pittsburgh and opens in the Capitol today. In addition to Conklin there is a long list of screen celebrities.

For the vaudeville attraction the management has booked three high grade vaudeville acts. Caulfield and Ritchie present a revue entitled "Surprises of 1928". Ashley and Sharpe are seen in a comedy skit, and Patsy Gilson and Helen McCree present a brunette and red head act.

Better come down and be sure of not missing this outlay of entertainment.

ESSEX Super 6

Looks and Acts like a Costly Car

because it's built like a costly car

The only Essex point in common with cars in its price field—is price. There is little in either appearance or performance to distinguish it from many a costlier car.

In size, it possesses the advantage of compactness without sacrifice of passenger quarters or riding comfort. It steers as easily as any car you have ever driven. There is a quickness and nimbleness in its motor action that will make some costlier cars you have driven seem slow and sluggish. These qualities are lasting.

Many exclusive and patented features contribute to these Essex advantages—among them being its high-compression Super-Six motor, which to our belief is the most powerful and efficient automobile motor of its size in the world . . . Won't you examine and drive the Essex, whether as a prospective buyer or as one interested in knowing why it is the choice car in its price field as proved by sales?

French Government May Attempt To Clean Up Corsican Banditry

By WILLIAM IVY
(Copyright, 1928, by The New Castle News)

PARIS, Oct. 4.—Fresh outcroppings of banditry in Corsica have resulted in demands that the French government make a serious attempt to clean up the island.

Corsica is unquestionably one of the spots on the earth's surface that has been most favored by nature, and already it is visited by thousands of tourists every year. But except for a few cities on the coast and a few main highways leading through the island, it is a great wilderness untouched by modern civilization, where the inhabitants are ruled not by laws but by customs.

There are two kinds of banditry in Corsica. One is the old romantic kind, with which most people have some sympathy. The famous bandit chief, Romanetti, who was killed by the police a few years ago, was thought by many to be the last of the great Corsican bandits of the old school, but that is not quite true. There are still a number of powerful outlaws in the island, men who wield considerable political power, and for the most part the police leave them alone so long as they refrain from committing depredations outside their own half-recognized spheres of influence. Like the now nearly extinct Maffia of Sicily, these men and their clans exercise a de-facto sovereignty and collect tribute from their "subjects", but rarely molest outsiders.

Another kind of Corsican banditry, however, is carried on by escaped criminals, and these classes do not hesitate at any crime. It is these that the government is called upon particularly to hunt down and exterminate.

Tourists are perfectly safe on the main routes in Corsica, but today it is imprudent to venture into many picturesque parts of the island. A clean-up would, of course, be a difficult job, but there is little doubt that a few years of patient effort would accomplish it.

Old Folks Say Doctor Caldwell was Right

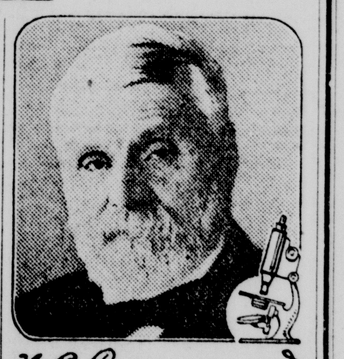

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Then, the treatment of constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions that result from constipation was entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of senna and other mild laxative herbs, with pepsin.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs?

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last a family several months, and all can use it. It is good for the baby because pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. In proper dose, given in the directions, it is equally effective at all ages. Elderly people will find it especially ideal. All drug stores have the generous bottles.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write your name and address in the special coupon you see at the end of this announcement, and send for a bottle to try. This complimentary bottle is forwarded, prepaid without charge of any kind.

KONJOLA ENDS LONG ILLNESS IN VERY SHORT TIME

Stomach and Kidney Troubles of More Than Two Years Duration Yield—All Else Had Failed.

MRS. MINNIE CAIN

Marvelous are the wonders worked by Konjola, the modern medicine for ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and for rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. Daily seekers after health are meeting the Konjola Man in the Love & Megown drug store, where he is citing case upon case wherein Konjola has triumphed after all other medicines and treatments have failed to afford even temporary alleviation of suffering. Konjola works quickly and give permanent results; glorious returns to health, a new life and a new joy in living. Countless are the endorsements of this master remedy; happy statements from those liberated from the thralldom of suffering and made well again. Among those grateful for the blessings Konjola confers upon the afflicted is Mrs. Minnie Cain, 313 Sampson avenue, New Castle, who radiant in her regained health and vigor after long sufferings, made this statement to the Konjola Man:

"I welcome this opportunity to tell what this wonderful Konjola did for me. I was discouraged with failure after failure to find something to help my stomach and kidney troubles. For two and a half years I was in extreme misery, and my condition was rapidly becoming worse. I must have tried everything I heard about, but all in vain. My appetite was very poor, and what little I did eat would lie in my stomach and ferment, causing gas and bloating and intense pain. My afflicted kidneys caused a dull, constant, sickening pain across the back, and at night it was necessary that I rise many times. At times the pains were so severe that I could not rise to a sitting posture, and was forced to keep to my bed.

"I noticed in The News many endorsements of Konjola, but was not impressed simply because all the medicines I had tried had disappointed me. But so convincing were these reports of the wonderful achievements of this modern medicine that I decided to give it a trial. To my astonishment and happiness I began to feel better within two days, and now, after a brief treatment, I am well again, freed from all my sufferings. I can eat anything I like without paying for it in pain, and am rapidly regaining my strength since I am able to digest my food and to sleep undisturbed all night. I gladly endorse Konjola; it certainly has been a Godsend to me."

Konjola contains juices from 22 plants—more than other medicines. It is a new compound that works with the sufferer's food, restoring more healthful action to the important organs (stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels) and producing new energy and glorious health in a natural way, thru the entire inner-system.

The Konjola Man who is meeting large crowds daily at the Love & McGown Drug Store, 204 Washington street, New Castle, where he is personally introducing and explaining the merits of this advanced remedy.

George W. Muse Gives Address On Railroads And Time To Men

Get-Together Of P. & L. E. Officials Started At Noon With Golf Tourney

Lake Erie Police Orchestra Furnishes Fine Music For Dinner-Meeting At Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 4.—"The modern railroad has to watch the trend of times and advance with new ideas and methods" said George W. Muse, former district attorney for Lawrence county before the dinner-meeting of the Agents association of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad Wednesday.

The affair was held in the ball room of the Ellwood Country club and attended by over 200 of the railroad's employes and guests.

Mr. Muse made the principal address following the dinner and he further stated that "he was glad to see that a number of railroads were watching this new trend of transportation and adapting their business to conform with the demand and desires of the pubilc." Mr. Muse gave the men several real ideas to think about and with his usual wit entertained in typical "George Muse style."

The get-together of the railroad men started at noon when they arrived in golf togs ready to do battle with members of the local club who had been invited to play with them. One of the first foursomes to start play included Frank G. Minnick, general manager of the P. and L. E. R. R. J. B. Nessle, traffic manager of the railroad and J. W. Offutt and Dr. C. W. Hayes of Ellwood as opponents. About 45 golfers took part part in the activities of the afternoon.

At 5:30 p. m. the special train bearing the agents and others of the railroad arrived in Ellwood and visitors were conveyed to the club in buses.

The dinner which was served in true Country club style, began at 6:30 o'clock with the music of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Police orchestra playing. R. Toussant, chief of police of the railroad, was present and active in his supervision of his musician police.

The P. and L. E. quartet entertained during the dinner. The personnel of the quartet including Artur Eynon, C. L. Hemme, B. C. Price and C. L. Murphy. Many missed Charley Thompson former bass singer of this group and a popular man among many Ellwood friends. He died last week. W. R. McAffee accompanied the quartet in the group of songs.

M. A. Bickett agent for the railroad in Ellwood City introduced Mr. Muse of New Castle who made the principal address after which President G. L. Sauer of the Agents association took charge and in turn introduced E. E. Smith, passenger manager of the railroad, S. Lynn superintendent of rolling stock, J. E. Hughes, superintendent of the east division of the railroad.

A discussion was indulged in on Traffic Tips which brought forth some fine ideas from the agents who entered the discussion and will profit by the remarks made. The subject 'How Can the Agents' Association be made more useful and helpful?" was discussed by several, the remarks of C. E. Hoop agent at Fayette City and P. F. Kraber of Pittsburgh were prepared and contained several useful suggestions.

Several guests from adjoining railroads were introduced and brief remarks were made by other railroad officials.

General Manager F. G. Minnick of the railroad visited Ellwood on his return from an extended trip over the N. Y. C. lines. He came to greet the Ellwood City people and to meet his employes in their gathering. However Mr. Minnick's special left about 7:30 p. m. and he stated that he was sorry that he could not have stayed and entered into the discussions of the agents.

Among the guests present: were Ralph Richards, Boys Work secretary of the railroad; J. L. Brooks, Y. secretary of East Youngstown; R. Kempton, Y. secretary of Newell; R. H. Doutt, division freight agent of the N. Y. C.; C. R. Gray assistant general freight agent of the Western Maryland; C. E. Armstrong, general agent of the reading system; H. W. Grounds traveling freight agent N. Y. C.; Carl Swanson, chief clerk for Mr. Minnick and John Feidt chief secretary to Mr. Minnick; R. B. Hanna, chief clerk to Superintendent Brown; F. C. Smith, chief clerk to Superintendent Hughes; J. P. Kellp, trainmaster; B. P. Rankin assistant auditor and E. E. Smith, general passenger agent.

Among those from Ellwood who assisted M. A. Bickett in entertaining the railroaders were J. W. Offutt, C. W. Hayes, Ralph Connors, Burton J. Bell, Dr. H. B. Anderson, Norman Rearic, Harry Harris, Ted Knauff and C. C. Davidson.

The railroad men were high in the praises of the entertainment of the Ellwood City people and complimented Mr. Offutt on the splendid golf course and club house that Ellwood has. One high railroad official stated before getting on the special that Ellwood is a great place and P. and L. E. men are always glad to be invited here and the railroad always stands ready to do what it can for Ellwood City.

Dismal Story Of Tawdry Ghetto Romance Is Told By New Yorker

Immigrants Are Packed Four Or Five In A Room In Tenement District

Most Exclusive Shops In New York Are At 57th Street And Fifth Avenue

By CLARK KINNAIRD
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Alexander C. Herman, Central Press writer, whose only home always has been New York (a rarity), agian conducts this column today. Here's his stint:

A little more than six years ago, Mamie (her real name doesn't matter), was a 12-year-old kid, as happy as any of the East Sidewalk children of the Ghetto. She lived in a large tenement with brothers, sisters, father and mother.

One day a queer middle-aged man, who boarded upstairs, inveigled her to his room. He disappeared soon after and never has been heard of since. But Mamie became a mother at 12.

It was shameful, and her family hushed up its disgrace. The authorities were not informed. The baby was put away in a foundling home.

The older members of the family cut their garments, and sat "chevve"—the ritual for the dead, which entails a week's prayer and meditation, while the bereaved sit upon low stools. The girl mother was looked upon as dead.

A virtual outcast, the girl began working as housemaid. She is now 18, and has progressed to the position of nursemaid.

Every visiting day (once a fortnight) she goes to the home and sees her baby. But she is not allowed to tell him that she is his mother. She is merely Miss Mamie—"an orful nice lady."

Last visit she asked the youngster if he would like to go home with her. "No, ma'am," he replied. "I couldn't do that. This is my home."

Within a few months the boy will be six. Then, according to the rules of the institution, he will have to be taken away by the mother, or she will have to release him for permanent adoption. Being still a minor, she needs the consent of her own family to guarantee the child's safe keeping.

But her father and mother have disowned her. To them she is as dead.

Perhaps their ire will mellow. If not, the girl will lose her baby forever.

Curtailment of immigration has put a crimp in the lower East Side realty mart. Cherry Hill, Montgomery street, Monroe and the rest of the Ghetto which once was the first haven of the newly-arrived immigrants, has sunk into sorry days.

Landlords used to pack 'em in four-five in one room. And they would charge up-town prices. As long as the "greenies" couldn't speak the new mother tongue, they hung by, glad to be congregated with others who spoke the language of their nativity.

By the time they became Americanized and moved to The Bronx, or upper Fifth avenue, a new batch of foreigners arrived, and business boomed. With the supply cut off by drastic quota regulations, landlords are thinking of going into the business of printing "To Let" signs.

But the far-sighted see a new era coming. The movement which began at Sutton place, three miles north on the East Side, may spread down townward. And in time there may be fashionable modern apartments where now the shabbiest tenements stand decrepit.

Outside a hospital, west of Broadway, an impending father kept pacing to and fro, awaiting some word from his wife, about to become a mother.

After what seemed hours, a nurse rushed out and congratulated him.

"It's a fine bouncing girl," she said.

"Thank God for that," replied the man, mopping his brow.

"But I thought you wanted a boy."

"Maybe I did," was the retort, "but not any more. I want no child of mine to go through what I've just been."

* * *

Women desiring to see exclusive shops should walk along Fifty-seventh street, near Fifth avenue. I don't know why I've written this, for I probably shall receive letters asking for the prices of this and that—which I dare not give. I do not buy on Fifty-seventh street. I peer into the windows.

Prison Industries Help To Train Men

Work Prevents Demoralization Which Comes From Complete Idleness

HARRISBURG, Oct. 4.—Despite the difficulties in the marketing of prison made goods the industries conducted at the state penitentiaries and the Huntingdon Reformatory are a vital part of prison administration, Harry E. Andrews who supervises the work in the Department of Welfare today asserted.

The primary aim of all such work, Andrews said is to train the inmates in trades or occupation which will assit them in becoming useful members of society when they are released. At the same time it prevents the demoralization which would follow complete idleness.

Products from the prison industries include license tags for automobiles, hunters and dogs, road signs and boundary markers, brushes, textiles, blankets, hosiery, underwear, shoes, furniture and printing.

Making of the automobile license tags at the western penitentiary is the largest single industry. They are produced at the rate of 8,000 sets each day.

At the Rockview penitentiary a 200 acre truck farm is operated and the products packed in a modern and completely equipped cannery. Approximately 100,000 gallons of vegetables are canned each year. A forest tree nursery in which are grown several million seedlings also is operated there.

Fall Shipments Of Fish Are Under Way

Hatcheries Now Distribute Trout, Perch, Sunfish And Catfish

HARRISBURG, Oct. 4.—Commissioner of Fisheries N. R. Buller has returned from a tour of the hatcheries where he has made arrangements for the fall shipments of fish. This is what is known as the height of the season to the Board of Fish Commissioners and it is now distributing trout, perch, sunfish and catfish.

These fish are being shipped from the hatcheries located at Union City, Pleasant Mount, Belefonte, Philadelphia and Corry. The majority of the shipments are going through by truck.

The policy of the Board of Fish Commissioners covering the size fish which are being shipped out has met with the hearty approval of the fishermen Buller said. No trout are being shipped out this year under six inches in length and there are many seven and eight inches. These fish will make good fishing when the season opens in the spring.

More Pupils Finish High School Course

Almost Every County In State Shows Marked Increase In Older Pupils

HARRISBURG Oct. 4.—The number of pupils in the public schools who complete the entire course shows a gradual but constant increase officials of the Department of Public Instruction said today.

During the last school term 53 counties showed an increase in the percentage of 16 and 17 year pupils enrolled. The percentage of such pupils in all the schools for that year was 31.8 a gain of 2.5 per cent over the previous school term.

Children between the ages of eight and 16 years are compelled to attend school unless they are legally excused. The number of eight and nine year old pupils is used as a basis for determining the ratio for the older groups.

Hurricane Relief Funds Are Sought Before End Of Week

COUNTY FUND IS REPORTED AT $1,745

An appeal urging all chapters of the American Red Cross to have their hurricane relief funds into the Washington, D. C. office of the organization by the end of the present week, has been received here from James L. Fieser, one of the organization's chiefs in charge of rehabilitation funds. "The Lawrence county chapter's quota is still far behind," commented Pat J. Dempsey, executive secretary of the local office. "Our desired quota is $10,000."

Mr. Dempsey announces that the local Red Cross office in the Temple building will be kept open each remaning evening this week as an accommodation to those who are unable to make their contributions during the day time. The office will open at 7 p. m. and close at 8 p. m.

A number of hearty contributions to the relief fund yesterday augumented the total amount to a much larger figure. To date $1,745.29 has been accounted for, $134 of this amount comprising the donations of Wednesday afternoon and this morning. The first contribution from a Lawrence county civic club was registered this morning when the Ellwood City Rotary club made a $50 contribution. REV. FR. DE MITA BACK FROM ITALY; FETED BY FRIENDS their pleasure at seeing him returned to duty in much improved health after a stay in his native land of Italy.

Father DeMita in his response to the numerous sentiments expressed for his safe return in improved health, took occasion to tell something of his trip, among other things stating that conditions in Italy, in spite of statements to the contrary are much improved, that there is now little or no evidence of poverty there and that the present government is not oppressive as some people would lead you to believe. The Italy as he found it on his return visit after an absence of 25 years, was so greatly improved over previous conditions, that it was hard for him to realize the true situation.

Rev. Clifford Toastmaster

The affair was staged in an able manner through the efforts of the assistant pastor Rev. Fr. DiRanna, who was most ably assisted by the ladies of the parish in preparing and serving the wonderful repast, and Rev. Fr. F. S. Clifford, assistant pastor of St. Mary's parish, who acted as toastmaster and master of ceremonies, doing so in an excellent finished manner, that added much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

When the guests of the occasion assembled in the dining room, a most pleasing sight greeted their gaze. The room had been tastily decorated with a large American flag, festooning of orange and white, and large vases filled with gorgeous dahlas of brilliant hues and a centerpiece consisting of a replica of the first church building used by St. Vitus parish and located on the site of the present fine church structure. This replica was made of cake.

Place cards consisting of a picture of the original parish with the names of the guests written on them, enabled those present to locate and take their places at the table. After the food had been blessed by Rev. Fr. DeMita, the guest of honor, the guests of the occasion were seated and the serving of the many course Italian dinner took place.

At the proper time, Rev. Fr. F. S. Clifford assumed his duties as toastmaster and the program of welcome to Father DeMita was under way.

Father O'Shea Speaks

The Very Rev. F. F. O'Shea, pastor of St. Mary's parish and dean of the clergy in Lawrence and Beaver counties, when called upon spoke of how pleased he was for the opportunity of being able to express his appreciation of the work of Father DeMita, also to be able to accord him welcome on his return from his land of nativity to his greatly loved adopted land "America." He concluded by hoping that Father DeMita might be spared for many, many years to come in order to carry on the great work that he started some time ago, and that his efforts might continue to benefit the church and its sons.

Peter P. Capitola was called upon to speak of the early days of St. Vitus' parish and did so in a very able manner. He called attention of how the flock of Father DeMita had increased from 105 families way back in 1906 to 850 families at the present time. He told of the original place of worship and the present magnificent structure, which superceded it many years ago. He said that the results in the parish were attributable to the efforts of Father DeMita. He expressed a hope for the continued improvement of health of the pastor and his continued efforts in behalf of Italian people of this city.

Fred L. Rentz said he was pleased to note the physical improvement of Father DeMita as a result of his vacation in Italy. "Father DeMita," he said, "stood out well in the city and he was especially pleased to consider him his friend. The News, he stated, endeavored to be fair to all religious bodies and while there were those, who at times had suggested that there was an oversupply of religious news in the paper, he thought it was far better to have too much good stuff, than some of the type of news matter that is so popular with some people today. He said he was glad to renew his friendship on an occasion like this and would be glad to continue to assist the pastor and parish as in the past.

Many Others Speak

Rev. Fr. Salvatore Marino, pastor of the Church of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Ellwood City, was called upon to give an address of welcome in Italian, which he did in a very able manner.

District Attorney J. Elder Bryan was called upon and spoke of the acquaintanceship between himself and Father De Mita, of many years' standing, and his appreciation of being present and being able to assist in welcoming Father DeMita back to his duties.

Adolph Green, president of the People's Savings and Trust Company, spoke at some length on the progress made by the Italian peoples of this city under the leadership of a quarter of a century by Father De Mita, and concluded with wishing him the continued good health that he had found in Italy.

Attorney Joseph Leta, after conveying in English the best wishes of Guiseppe Jurato, consul general of Italy in Pittsburgh, and his regrets at being unable to be present, spoke a fitting tribute in the Italian language.

Dr. H. C. Harper then responded to an invitation to speak and expressed his pleasure at being able to greet Father De Mita on his return and in such greatly improved health.

Rev. Fr. Patrick DiRanna, assistant pastor, who was in charge of St. Vitus parish in the absence of Father De Mita, spoke, stating that he was only too glad to welcome back, not only his pastor, but his spiritual father, and to return to him that which had been left in his charge during the absence in Italy. He told how that it was due to the influence and assistance of Rev. Fr. De Mita that he had entered the priesthood and that everything he was he felt he owed to Father De Mita. He had handled the affairs of the parish, he said, in as efficient a manner as possible, and hoped that Father De Mita would find everything in order and satisfactory.

Father De Mita Speaks

Father De Mita in making response to the many evidences of appreciation and welcome spoke most feelingly, stating that "it is a great pleasure for me, although it is hard to find words to express my happiness and thanks on such an occasion as this for the welcome extended me." He went on to say that he thought, perhaps, that the best way to answer his welcome was to say a few words concerning his trip. He said: "The ocean was good to me both coming and going. I suffered no sea sickness. This was beneficial to my health, as were the blue skies of my native Italy. Then, too, the dry weather of the four months stay was very beneficial. It rained but once during my stay, and while it was a little hot, it was better to have the heat than the rain.

"I noticed many changes in Italy after an absence of 25 years. The changes were, in fact, quite astounding. Italy is entirely changed. There is no evidence of poverty. There is industry everywhere. I was under the impression from what I had read that conditions were miserable and that the present government was very oppressive. Instead, I found that poverty had vanished and industry supplanted that condition. There was not the slightest evidence of oppression.

"I visited many places, and everywhere I found all the people of all classes without one complaint and everybody blessing the order and encouraging the government. The people over there are all united, are enthusiastic and going about their work most willingly.

"Every good citizen has nothing to fear. He is safe at home or wherever he may go. There is no room for the criminals there. All the people are protected and the government is encouraging everybody. I don't see why any person should talk against the government that is doing so much for all.

"I take this opportunity of thanking Father DiRanna and all others associated in this happy event for the welcome extended me."

Share in Program

The concluding speaker of the evening was Tony Lomberto, who spoke in Italian, and whose remarks kept his listeners in a gale of laughter.

Musical number of the evening included the song of welcome, rendered by Miss Mary Martin, Mrs. Michael Conti and John Martin, with Mrs. Lasco at the piano, as Father De Mita and the other guests assembled at the banquet table. During the banquet and between addresses Miss Mary Ross rendered vocal and piano selections in a pleasing manner.

Included in the guest list last night were Rev. F. F. O'Shea, Rev. Nicholas De Mita, the honor guest; Rev. S. Marino, Rev. F. S. Clifford, Rev. Patrick DiRanna, A. Green, F. L. Rentz, H. K. Bell, District Attorney J. Elder Bryan, Leopold Rohrer, Attorney Joseph Leta, County Detective W. G. Fleming, Dr. H. C. Harper, Carm Sacco, Dr. A. M. Perifano, John Martin, Mary Martin, Peter P. Capitola, Charles DiCarbo, Jacob DeFonso, Fred DiCarbo, Antonio Mastrangelo, Luigi Tardelli, Angelo De Mita and daughters, the Misses Ermalinda and Josephine De Mita, of Pittsburgh; Harry Ross, Michael Ross, Frank Cole, Anilo Basilo, Michael Conti, Peter Biondi, Luigi Bosco, Tony Lomberto and others.

crete join she noticed a crowd and stopped. Getting out of the car she saw a man lying in the road who she recognized as Thomas B. Haswell. She asked that somebody take him to the hospital, but said that some of the people thought they would get into trouble if they moved the body.

Mrs. Kummer testified that she had asked who had hit the man, and a young man had replied that he had hit him in an unavoidable accident.

Mrs. Cleo Brown who was in the same car as Mrs. Kummer corroborated the testimony.

Mrs. Julian Miller told of pulling up to the scene of the accident and volunteering to take the body into the hospital which she did. She also testified that a man had admitted hitting Haswell but said it had been unavoidable.

Took Him Out

A. O. Anderson testified that he had taken Mr. and Mrs. Haswell and two daughters to Rock Springs, but that Haswell had started to walk back to New Castle. Anderson said that he had seen the crowd at the scene of the accident and had pulled up to investigate. He recognized Haswell and helped to place him into the car of Mrs. Miller.

Mr. Anderson also testified to having gone with Sheriff Reynolds to the home of Charles Green on the next day, and asking who had hit Haswell. Green had said that Charles Thompson did it, and the sheriff and Anderson had hunted him up. Anderson testified that Green had said that he had been drinking and that Thompson had also. Upon cross examination by Attorney Thomas W. Dickey, Anderson was asked if Haswell had been drinking and he replied that he had not.

Sheriff Reynolds was called and testified that he had been called to the scene of the accident. On the day following the sheriff hunted up Green and with Anderson had taken Green to the place where Thompson roomed. Green complained of his throat being dry, according to the sheriff, and he asked him if he had been drinking the night before. He said Green admitted it and said Thompson had also "had a shot".

Call Green

Charles Green, who was with Thompson was called and said that he and Thompson with Mrs. Daisy Rowan and a Miss Mayberry had been to the dance at Rock Springs on Saturday night, September 29. As they were returning, near the point where the macadam and the concrete join a man suddenly stepped out onto the highway and the Thompson car hit him. Green admitted drinking but denied that he had said that Thompson had been.

Green testified that the matter of reporting the accident was talked over but that Thompson had been in a highly nervous condition and could hardly drive the car back to New Castle and had said that he would report it on Sunday.

Charles Thompson was called and said that he and Green and the two girls had been at the dance and had started back before midnight. Near the point where the macadam and concrete join, he said a man had stepped onto the road, "apparently from nowhere" and although he swerved his car to the left to avoid hitting him, the man was struck and knocked down.

Thompson said he got out of the car and went back, as did the other people in the car where they examined Haswell. Several cars pulled up and the man was placed in one of them.

Thompson admitted having taken the plates off his car when he got home but explained that by saying that he never intended to drive a car again. This was corroborated by Mrs. Rowan. He said that his nerves were severely shaken by the accident and that he had difficulty getting the car home. He denied having been drinking.

Norman Houk, Clark Reno, Samuel Teech, Samuel Sewall, Carl Brophy, Charles Ray and William Bunney were called and all testified to having passed a man on the Harlansburg road, who was staggering. Several of the men testified that they had nearly wrecked their cars endeavoring to avoid hitting the man. Elmer Shira was the last witness called and testified that he had seen Haswell at the dance, but could not say whether or not he had been drinking.

Following the verdict, Thompson was released from the custody of Sheriff H. M. Reynolds, where he has been since Sunday night.

BAD BOYS KEEP OFFICERS ON JUMP

Numerous calls have been received of late from the Butler avenue district concerning the practice of boys of that section in throwing tomatoes and other objects at houses in the district, breaking windows and doing other damage. Last night Officers J. Young and Letera answered a call to 743 Butler avenue and succeeded in capturing two of the boys responsible for the trouble. These boys have been ordered in before Mayor William H. Gillespie on Saturday. Chief of Police Horner stated today that boys caught in these kind of depredations are to be punished more severely in the future.

Renew Friendships At Yankee Stadium

First Two In Bleacher Line This Year, Also Led Parade Last Fall

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—John Green, of Washington, and Samuel Rawitzer, of New York, renewed an acquaintance made last year when they arrived at the gates of the Yankee stadium, the first of the shock troops which will storm the grounds to witness the 1928 World's Series. They also were the first in line last year. Both are Yankee rooters.

Green was first to arrive, at about noon yesterday. After a short time Rawitzer appeared.

"Hello John," he said.

"Hello Sam."

And they settled down quietly for the long wait.

Giant Tackle

DISHONG ✦ TACKLE

To Homer Dishong, giant freshman tackle on the Westminster grid squad goes the honor of being the second heaviest player on the squad. Dishong, a former Westmont high school luminary at Johnstown, weighs 225, while Gerry Sweet, veteran guard, tips the scales at 235. Dishong saw service against the Carnegie Tech stalwarts last Saturday, and if this Allegheny outfit is as big as scouts claim, he and Sweet may be injected into the U. P. line here Saturday to add weight to the outfit.

Wrigley Denies Hornsby Bought

Cubs President Says "No Negotiations Opened For Rogers Hornsby

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Chicago Cubs, today denied that his club was negotiating for the purchase of Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Boston Braves.

William Veeck, president of the Cubs, also denied knowledge of any such deal.

Both admitted, however, that they "would like to have him."

It was recalled that both Wrigley and Veeck issued similar statements last year when they were asked concerning the purchase of Ki Ki Cuyler. It later developed the deal with Pittsburgh had been closed.

EVANS REFUSES TO FIGHT FIRPO

Jolly Says That Dick's Manager Has Refused To Accept Bout

Fans who have been anxious to see Dick Evans and Young Firpo in action will not see them, at least not Monday night, through no fault of Young Firpo.

According to Billy Jolly, he learned from the boxing commission that Frankie Wine, carded to box Homer Smith, is in altercation with his manager.

The boxing commission requested Jolly to substitute someone else if possible and Jolly went to Youngstown and later 'phoned Ted Kline, manager of Evans, offering him a bout with Firpo.

According to Jolly, Evans refused to fight Firpo here Monday night. Jimmy Dunn, manager of Firpo, agreed to let Firpo fight Evans "if he weighed a ton."

So it looks as though the Evans-Firpo fight is off—at least for some time to come. Evans, it is said, weighs around 165, but Dunn said: "Bring him on, Firpo will take him if he weighs a ton."

Metropolis Excited, Teams Are On Edge

Cardinals Enter Annual Classic With Best Pitching Talent

Lot Depends On Condition Of Crippled List Of Yankee Stars

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—As the light of a new day fell, pale and cheerless, upon a world that slept, unmindful of its crisis, the inevitable crowd huddled in the lee of the Yankee Stadium wall this morning and probably mustered a tolerant amusement for the Bowery and the likes of those who stood last night at the doors of the missions. Derelicts, human driftwood without a purpose in life, they had waited only for bread and a place to sleep. But those at the stadium gates at least were waiting for something important.

They were waiting for the opening game of the 1928 world series between the Yankees and Cardinals, and naturally an all-night vigil was as nothing to the reward that was to be theirs when the gates were opened at 10 o'clock.

Annual Brainstorm

The presence of these faithful sentinels of the night gave mute warnings that baseball's annual brainstorm again was upon us. However, the storm signals were flying on every front, what with downtown hotels crowded to the lobby exits and the up and downtown ticket speculators overrunning the premises. There wasn't a first-class room to be had, unless you had a certified reservation; there wasn't a reserved seat to be had, unles syou were willing to go for a net loss of $50 for a three-game ticket that once retailed at $16.50. In brief, New York was in the clutches of the annual vortex, only this time the general tensity was worse, if anything.

The ticket demand never before had been so insistent. Everybody seemingly wished to see this first game of the big event, their desire heightened by the fact that more seats were available than had been the case in any previous series.

Given favorable weather, and the forecast was for blue skies and mild temperatures, it was the prevailing conclusion that the greatest crowd in world series history would attend At least 75,000 were expected in the stands at 1:30 this afternoon when the affair was scheduled to be called into action and, if the local fire department proved amenable to suggestion, additional standing room for 5,000 more might be made available. The crowd, if all went well, figured to write new chapters in the history of world series play, as did the gross intake at the gates, provided the event went its full limit of seven games.

Seats Sell Fast

World series financial records were established in 1926 when the same teams played to a total of more than $1,207,000. Conservative estimates based on the increased capacity of the stadium, place the probable "gate" for the 1928 affair at about $1,250,000.

The 40,000 reserved seats at the stadium were sold to the last ticket five days ago, and one might add probably resold several times over. In consequence there was only one way to beat this game, and those who stood in line through the night, their corporal comforts assuaged by soap boxes and coffee, were taking advantage of it.

Through their foresight or dementia, or both, they had placed themselves in a position to have the choice of the best seats in the unreserved sections of the covered stands and bleachers as soon after 10 o'clock as protesting muscles could negotiate the necessary distance. All good clean fun, as it were.

Seldom has any club entered a world series with a lack of physical condition that is supposed to be the lot of the Yankees. Pennock, their key pitcher, is definitely out of consideration with neuritis in his pitching arm; Lazzeri, their second baseman, is to operate mostly on nerve alone; Combs, their center fielder, will be out of action altogether, barring the possibility of being called upon as a pinch runner. It wasn't surprising, therefore, that those who make book on this thing offered the Cardinals at 7 to 5 two days ago and showed a disposition last night to make these odds even more attractive.

Cards Best in Pitching

For as matters stood, the Cards had the better of the all-important pitching situation, with Sherdel, Alexander and Haines, the 1926 heroes, ready to go again; they had superior catching and infield defense and, in a pinch, could muster greater speed, both in attack and on defense. The only advantage conceded the Yankees was superior power on offense. That as a matter of fact, couldn't be taken away from them, with Ruth, Gehrig Lazzeri and Meusel having given credible evidence of a return to form during the dying weeks of the American League campaign.

World series history is rife with upsets, however, and the writer doesn't mind saying that he sees the possibility of another here. Yankee hitting makes this possibility live—at least until further notice. The only time one really can afford to discount this punch is when one has all the boys out, not excluding the last boy.

In one respect the Yanks were an even money bet today. It was dollar for dollar on this opening game, because Waite Hoyt, star of the staff, if not the staff itself, was due to pitch, and that meant plenty of tribulation for the club that must face him. The Yanks were to draw no push-over themselves, it being understood that Willie Sherdel, who slow-balled them silly in 1926 without winning a game, was to perform.

Seven to five on the series; even money on the first game. This shows just how far out of focus a world series bet can go. It is almost baseball dogma that the club which wins the opening game seldom loses the title.

Allegheny College Has Heavy Team

Will Outweigh Westminster Eleven Considerably In Game On Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 4.—Allegheny College will bring one of the heaviest teams in the entire district to New Wilmington Saturday for the Allegheny-Westminster grid game.

The Methodists have a team that is second only to Carnegie Tech in size. While the regular lineup averages 192 pounds on the line and 178 in the backfield, Coach Merritt can send in other men who will give the Gold and Blue a line weighing more than 200 pounds and a set of backs averaging about 187.

Westminster will send its light team against the Methodists. Coach Beede's outfit will average 174 pounds on the line and 165 in the backfield. Whether or not the United Presbyterians will be able to cope with the bulky Methodist forward wall remains to be seen. Allegheny followers claim that Westminster will not fare much better than did Mt. Union last Saturday when the Allegheny stalwarts drubbed them 32-0.

BROTHERS HOPE TO WIN FIGHTS

Sims Boysto Stack Up Against Gibbons At Bowl Monday

It is not unusual to hear of two brothers, or possibly three, four or five having entered the fistic game but it is unusual to see two brothers in any one division of the game, but Monday night fans who trot to Jolly bowl will have a chance to see this sight.

For instance, Dick Gibbons and Eddie Gibbons, Duquesne, Pa., are brothers and in the heavyweight class. Frank Sims and Eddie Sims, Cleveland, are brothers and also fight in the heavyweight class. To make things more unique, the brothers are paired off.

Frank Sims will battle Dick Gibbons in a six round battle while Eddie Sims and Eddie Gibbons will go on in a four-round battle. Should Eddie Sims beat Eddie Gibbons in the four rounder, Frank Sims will have to go some because Dick Gibbons will be out for revenge.

New Wilmington High Cancels Grid Game

Will Not Play Farrell Saturday Because Of Team's Injuries

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 4.—Because of the lack of material and the prevalence of injuries, the New Wilmington-Farrell high school football game, scheduled to be played at Farrell this Saturday, has been cancelled by the college town school authorities. Despite the fact that the New Wilmington eleven, with its supplementary force of substitutes numbering three light men, easily defeated the New Castle trade school last week, the fear of more injuries at the hands of the heavy Farrell team decided the local school to cancel.

However, with the hope of finding more material the remainder of the schedule will be played out. Sandy Lake high school will be played here Saturday, Oct. 12.

Two men who have already been put out for the season are Hartwell, star end of last year's team, and Cheers ,who played regularly at halfback on the 1927 eleven. Both of these men suffered fractured collar bones and will not step into uniforms again this year.

Effort is being made on the part of the school authorities to give Coach Olsen a squad of 20 boys.

Midget Guard

CEBULA ✦ GUARD

Size and weight mean little to George Cebula, 158-pound guard on the Westminster football team. Cebula, captain of the Campbell Memorial, O., high school team last year, is one of the freshmen candidates for the line at Westminster who looks like varsity material despite his size. In the Carnegie Tech game last Saturday he played excellently until he was hurt and had to be removed. He may see action against Allegheny here Saturday.

Penn State Gridmen Point For Bucknell

Fathers Day Battle Will Be One Of Revenge For Nittany Lions

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 4.—Smarting under the 13 to 7 defeat administered to them last year in one of the east's many football upsets, the Penn State Nittany Lions today are pointing not for Gettysburg who they play Saturday but rather for Coach Snavely's Bucknell Bisons, a team which remains practically the same as the one that drubbed the Lion last year.

Ten veterans will be pitted against the Nittany hordes, while from the Lions ranks have gone Roepke, Lungren, Mahoney, Lesko, Hastings, Krall, Greenshields, Pincura and Dangerfield in addition to several reserves.

The game with Bucknell, Penn State's oldest grid opponent will aid the college in carrying out its annual Fathers Day program Saturday, October 13. More than 2,000 parents are expected and it is probable that many more will make their appearance on the day.

Yankees Award Series Share

Twenty-Six Players To Get Full Share Of World Series Money

EVERYONE ON CLUB WILL SHARE PROFITS

By FORD C. FRICK
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—If it's true that giving away money is a real test of friendship, then your Yankees are a friendly lot, filled with good fellowship and the spirit of kindly aid.

Yesterday afternoon the boys held a meeting for the distribution of World Series shares, and they never overlooked a single person in the distribution or largess. Even players no longer with the club were remembered with the Christmas spirit.

Here are a few of their gifts:

Doc Woods, trainer, and Mark Roth, road secretary, were each voted three-quarters of a share.

Rosy Ryan, who joined the club less than a month ago, was given a half share as was Matty Mathews, the rotund little coach, who came late in the season.

Coveleski Remembered

Stanley Coveleskie, ancient spit baller, who left the club two months ago was voted a half share, and Al Shealy, pitcher, who spent two months of the season with St. Paul cames in for a similar amount.

Full shares were voted to Arthur Fletcher and Charley O'Leary, coaches and to Tom Zachary and Fred Heimach, pitchers, who came to the club in August.

There were cash awards, too, as follows:

Fred Logan, clubhouse man, $1,000.

Archie Campbell, pitcher, who was released to St. Paul in the Heimach deal, $750.

Bill Dickey, catcher, recalled a month ago from Little Rock, gets $750.

Eddie Bennett, the mascot, was voted $800, andthe ground keeper was given a $1,000 remembrance to help keep the grass green.

In addition to Fletcher, O'Leary, Heimach and Zachary, the following players will collect full shares:

Manager Huggins.

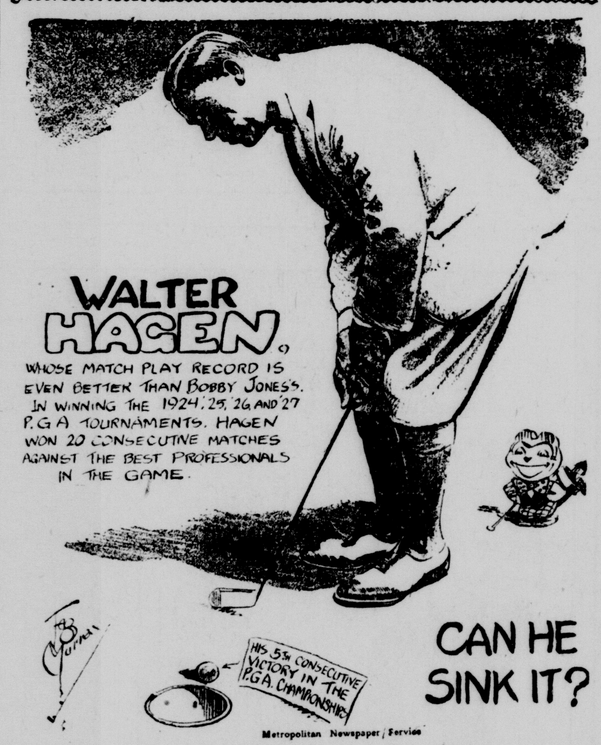

Catchers: Bengough, Grabowski, and Collins.

Pitchers: Hoyt, Pennock, Pipgras, Johnson, Thomas, and Moore.

Infielders: Gehrig, Lazzeri, Durocher, Koenig, Dugan, Robertson and Gazella.

Outfielders: Ruth, Meusel, Combs, Paschal and Durst.

"Just Puttering Around" By Fog Murray

Walter Hagen may not be the best-behaved or the best-looking golfer in the world, but he certainly is one of the best-dressed, one of the greatest fighters and the greatest match player in the whole universe. "How about Bobby Jones?" you ask. Granted that Jones's match play record is marvelous, for he has lost only one match in the last five national amateur tournaments, and granted that the Atlanta Peach has it on Hagen when it comes to medal play over a stretch of years, Sir Walter's match play record is even better, and besides, he beat Sir Robert 12 and 11 in a special 72-hole match in Florida in 1926.

In the annual Professional Golfers' Association tournament Walter Hagen is forced to meet better players than Bobby Jones meets in the national amateur tournament. There is no argument there. Yet in six P. G. A. championships Hagen has lost just one match, and that to Sarazen on the 38th green! Here is "The Haig's" remarkable record over a stretch of seven years (he did not compete in the 1922 P. G. A. tournament). If the old boy wins the 1928 title it will be a record unequalled in any sport, for consistency in golf is rare indeed.

In 1921 Hagen beat Forrester, 6 and 4; Boyd, 6 and 5; Golden, 8 and 7; Walker, 5 and 4, and Barnes, 3 and 2. In 1923 he won from Griffin, 4 and 3; Elphick, 10 and 9; Golden, 4 and 3; McLean, 5 and 4, and lost to Sarazen at the second extra hole. In 1924 the Rochester Wizard beat Harmon, 6 and 5; Watrous, 4 and 3; Farrell, 3 and 2; Derr, 8 and 7, and Barnes, 2 up. Nineteen twenty-five saw him defeating Watrous on the 39th green; Brady, 7 and 6; Diegel, at the 40th hole; Cooper, 3 and 1, and Melhorn, 6 and 5. In 1926 Hagen beat Turnesa, 3 and 2; Grout, 7 and 6; Doyle, 6 and 5; Farrell, 6 and 5, and Diegel, 5 and 3. Last year "The Haig" won from Farrell, 3 and 2; Manero, 11 and 10; Armour, 4 and 3; Espinosa at the 37th, and Turnesa, 1 up.

He has lost one match out of 30!

Sherdel To Get Pitching Post In First Game

Manager McKechnie Has Faith In Hard Working Southpaw

WAITE HOYT TO HURL FOR YANKS

By BILL CORUM
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—He is small and middle age is just around the corner. It won't be long until that bald spot popes right through a thinning blond pompadour.

He was born in Hanover, Pa., on August 15, 1896, and at early age his family discovered with some consternation tht he was left handed. All sorts of expedients were resorted to, such as tying his left hand to the cradle, but you can't discourage a born southpaw.

People who are left-handed are always bringing up the name of Michel Angelo. It seems to me that natural reaction to that is the query: Haven't there been any good left-handers since him?

Returning to our hero, he was tagged with the fortright name of William Henry to offset his decided list to port, but the fellows called him "Sherry."

Sherdel Is Quiet

Of all those directly interested in the world's series I venture to guess that he is the only one who hasn't made a prediction on the outcome. It does seem strange then that William Henry Sherdel, who will stand out there in the middle of the diamond before all those people and pitch to what is left of Murderers' Row, hasn't been asked for his opinion. The only way I can explain it is to tell you that William Henry Sherdel is just that sort of fellow.

That guy from Mars probably would feel sorry for Sherdel if he should Lindbergh in for today's game. "Sherry" always looks so small and pitiful somehow, tugging at his sleeve like a small boy and hitching at his belt. But if you think's he's scared, he "ain't." And if you think he can't pitch a few you are mistaken.

No Dazzy Vance for speed, you understand, but with a fairly fast one, a neat curve ball and a dinky little slow ball that's so tardy it would make Jimmy Walker look like the Cannonball Express.

In 1926 "Sherry" nodded head and head with Herb Pennock through two heart-breaking games. Hornsby dropped him in those touch spots because Hornsby felt and still feels that the wee one is a really pitcher capable of holding his own with Pennock or anybody else.

Nor is McKechnie picking any soft spot for Bill today when he shoots him against Waite Hoyt, the hope of the old home town. But Waite mustn't make any mistakes. This fellow is deceiving. He is plenty pitcher and calmest when the shells start bouncing on the crossroads.

That's why you will hear Sunny Jim Bottomley crooning, "Come on you Sherry." Sunny Jim likes his pitchers with plenty of heart and he's fond of Sherdel, as who that knows him isn't?

Ginger ale will kill the taste of castor oil, but surely this country's castor oil consumption doesn't approximate seven gallons per capita.

Geneva Hopes To Defeat Bucknell Eleven Saturday

Coach Flenniken Drives Geneva Squad Through Hard Sessions

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Oct. 4.—A light workout on Monday and heavy scrimmage on Tuesday and Wednesday have been the schedule for Mack Flenniken's Geneva gridders this week in preparation for their second game of the season with Bucknell at Reeves stadium next Saturday.

Capt. Booth, stellar end; Earl Ewing, hard-hitting fullback, and Harry Haude, regular guard, have not as yet recovered from their recent injuries and may not be ready to go on Saturday. If this is the case, the Gold and White will be greatly weakened, for their reserve strength is none too strong. "Joe" Preece, Red Davis and one or two others are nursing injuries received in last Saturday's fray with Adrian, but they will probably be ready to play against Bucknell.

Coach Flenniken has not been entirely pleased with the work of his varsity in the scrimmages held this week and a lot of real, hard work is needed before the team can be pronounced ready for Bucknell. Coach Flenniken will probably start the same lineup against the boys from eastern Pennsylvania as he did against Adrian.

Collegians Will Have Pep Meeting

Will Arouse Enthusiasm For Allegheny Game At Meeting Friday Evening

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 4.—Westminster's first "Pep" meeting will be held in the gymnasium tomorrow evening in preparation for Saturday's grid tilt with Allegheny College.

As is custom, members of the freshman class will be asked to sing the Westminster songs and to give the cheers as a group at this meeting. Practice of songs and yells by the entire student body will be the next thing in order. A number of fight talks and announcements will complete the program.

A cheer-leading squad, under direction of Jack Hulme, has been practising for two weeks. From this group a head cheer leader and a number of assistants will be selected.

The men in the group are Kenneth Dyer, Pittsburgh; Kenneth Homer, New Kensington; Louis Hazen, New Castle; John Shaffer, Lowellville, O.; Louis Kiefer, Pittsburgh; Raymond Black, West Sunbury; Robert Weingartner, New Castle, and Fred Blaha, New Castle.

Three of four of these men will also direct the cheering at the Allegheny game. The cheer leaders are to wear cream trousers and blue sweaters with the name, Westminster, printed on them.

Cripples Vs. Aged Is Series Outlook

Yankee Dugout Resembles First Aid Station In Front Line Trenches

Several Of Cardinals Are But One Step Ahead Of Old Father Time

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—"Don't hit an old man" and "never pick on a cripple" are part of most everybody's code, but we fear that these commendable ethics are due to be atrociously violated at the Yankee stadium this afternoon when the nines representing the old men's home and the city hospital ward clash, have at it, meet, cross bats, play, or if you prefer, oppose each other. For eight members of the Cardinals are more than thirty years old, rather aged in a baseball sense, and six players are on New York's hospital list with injuries of varying degree.

As far as the Cardinals are concerned, Alexander is 41, Mitchell 37; Haines, 35, and Sherdel, 32. And these hurlers are counted upon to shoulder practically all of the pitching burden.

Injuries to Pennock, Combs, Lazzeri, Ruth, Koenig and Gehrig comprise the Yankee grief. Pennock and Cobs are out. When Lazzeri tries to pivot and throw the ball to first to complete a double play, his wing hurts like an arm getting the third hypodermic needle at an army training camp.

Ruth Has Bum Knee

Ruth, standing at the plate with all his weight on one foot to ease the strain on his bum knee, experiences all the sensations of a duffer trying to attain a correct stance for a drive out of a pit off quicksand.

Koenig, with a stone bruise on his heel, will be cavorting around the bases with all the speed of an ice wagon.

Gehrig is minus three teeth as the result of being kissed by a baseball in Detroit.

With piles of bandages and Ruth's leg braces cluttering up the landscape, the New York dugout resembles a first-aid station on the border of No Man's Land.

Combs will be available for duty as a pinch runner. But unfortunately he won't get a chance to utilize his legs until Cedric Durst, Ben Lyon Paschal or some of the other substitutes get to first base.

Speaking of injuries, the Cardinals are lucky. Young Walt Roettger is their only casualty, and that pale but interesting invalid is reported to be ready for service as a pinch hitter.

Methodists Prepare For Westminster

Allegheny Team Sees Big Battle Ahead In Clash On Saturday

(Special To The News)

MEADVILLE, Pa., Oct. 4.—Unaffected by their decisive victory over Mt. Union College last Saturday, the Allegheny College football team is working hard in preparation for its hard game with Westminster College at New Wilmington next Saturday.

Today's practice was given over to continued offensive work with special attention being paid to the weaknesses that showed up last Saturday. In addition to considerable scrimmage in running plays, much forward passing was indulged in. With several good passers on the Allegheny squad, Coach Merritt plans to make the aerial game an important part of the Allegheny offense.

Coach Hammett has been drilling a squad of men in Westminster plays preparing a team to send against the Allegheny Varsity. The veteran Allegheny scout reported that Westminster is exceptionally strong and that Allegheny will have a hard time penetrating the line of their opponents. The Allegheny team will be given special work in perfecting a defense against the passing game of Westminster for it is known here that the latter school will resort to an overhead attack in the coming contest.

Ward workers were elected and 37 new members joined the organization. No candidate for the presidency was endorsed, this remaining open until the meeting of Friday evening October 5.

Coach Berry Is Uncertain About Grovers Lineup

Captain Paterlini And Day Are Likely Starters In Backfield

GROVE CITY, Pa., Oct. 4.—Uncertainty prevails in Grove City's football camp, and when the curtain goes up at college field Saturday afternoon the Crimson lineup which takes the field against St. Francis college may be a surprise to the fans. Coach Berry is still experimenting with backfield and line combinations, and refuses to divulge his choice of a starting team.

Captain Paterlini will get a backfield post, as his experience in the Berry style is indispensable. Ralph Day is a probable choice, and the New Castle flash is expected to call signals from a halfback position. Then come Kammer, Shupe and Waleski, all leading candidates, with Pusch, Thomas and DeCoster making strong bids.

Berry is giving close attention to the line, where he hopes to strengthen some doubtful positions between the tackles. Sadler and Schultz, yearlings on the squad, are fast, powerful, tackles, but need experience. McCloskey is getting the call for the center position, and Lantz is providing plenty of competition.

Girl Scout Offices Opened At Y. W. C. A.

New Director Arrives In City; Mrs. Bernard Kane Resigns From Council

Miss Mae Pugh newly elected director of the New Castle council of Girl Scouts has arrived and assumed the duties of the office for which she has been chosen. Offices for the council are now open on the third floor of the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Pugh is the first director for Girl Scout work in New Castle. Her past experience and success in this line gives her a high recommendation for her new office.

The local council's committee responsible for the selection of a location for scout headquarters chose the Y. W. site after the room had been courteously granted them by Y. W. officials. Mrs. I. C. Brown and Miss Pauline Gilkey comprise this committee. Furniture for the room will be secured shortly as a group of council women are at work on the matter at the present. Miss Martha Bigley and Mrs. F. E. Sowersby are the members of this group.

The Girl Scout council of New Castle held a meeting Tuesday evening at which time a number of important matters were discussed. Miss Pauline Gilkey camp director made her report for the season and showed that the camp was self-supporting this year.

At this meeting also Mrs. Bernard Kane one of the oldest charter members of the council, tendered her resignation to the council members. Her leave was accepted with regret. Mrs. Kane will take up her residence in New Jersey.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN
Sports Writer for Central Press and New Castle News

Regardless of the outcome of the baseball campaign—in which the Yanks rode to win—Miller Huggins, astute pilot of the Yankees, will effect a general overhauling of his New York Yankees.

There is nothing exactly startling about this statement. With an aging pitching staff, a catching staff that has not proved brilliant, a weakness at third and some new hitting blood generally to be desired — this move could be expected.

The poor showing of the New York Yankees since midseason would bring a general shakeup of that team, regardless of age, color or previous condition of servitude—with Huggins manager.

Huggins has but one aim in building a ball club—building one that has the winning spirit. It need not win consistently if the actual playing strength is not there but Huggins will not tolerate a team that loafs on the job and permits ball games to slip away without visible perturbation.

He broke up the old Yankee team that won three pennants in a row—just because they had ceased to have the desire to win.

"All this guff about temperament being harmful on your ball club, internal dissension wrecking it, etc., is the hooey," Huggins remarked several campaigns ago. "I ask only one thing of a ball player—that he have the winning spirit. That he go into the game with the idea of winning that game or just about busting a leg in his effort."

Now about the the time that the Yankees had apparently entrenched themselves in the lead with a margin of some 13 games—in midsummer—it was very apparent that there was a let down generally in that ball club. Of course, Herb Pennock suffered an injury that took him out of the game for awhile. Tony Lazzeri found himself beset with hard luck injuries, which benched him at intervals and one or two other bad "breaks" hurt the club.

But it was also noted that there was a lax spirit among some of the other players.

Among some of the players whose names just will bob up in rumors regarding the changes in personnel to be expected over the winter are Ben Paschal, pinch hitting outfielder; Cedric Durst, pinch hitter and handy man; Leo Durocher, once scheduled to win a regular berth on the team as infielder; Gene Robertson, once destined to fill Joe Dugan's shoes at third — and Joseph the Jumper himself.

Joe, of course, has been slated to depart for some time because of his age and aching legs.

Of course, Herb Pennock will pass along one of these days, too, but the way all pitchers go—yielding to the ravages time makes on the pitching arm. Wilcey Moore, old in years but a newcomer to the Yanks last year, is slated to retire also with a dead arm. Waite Hoyt, though just about the dean of the staff, will probably be kept another year, helping to train Henry Johnson, Al Sheely and other young flingers. These players, Ruth, Gehrig, Lazzeri and Koenig and probably Meusel are about the only ones due to stick. At least so it seems now.

Seventeen Hurt In Canadian Wreck

(International News Service)

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 4.—Seventeen persons were injured, four seriously, when an incoming Canadian National Railway flier was sideswiped by a derailed Canadian Pacific freight car at Aldershot, near Hamilton, today. The most seriously injured were taken to Hamilton, the remainder continuing on to Toronto. The whole side was ripped out of one passenger car.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The motor and steel stocks went on a bullish rampage at the beginning of trading today. Furious bidding for Chrysler, Reo, Mack Trucks, White Motors, Briggs and Murray Body, Packard and Hudson sent prices flashing upward 2 to 4 points and the establishment of a new high level of prices for the motor group. Victor Talking raced up 8 points to above 120 in the first fifteen minutes. Bethlehem Steel led the bears a merry chase with the stock bounding along to above 66 for a 3-point gain.

Chrysler sold into new high price territory above 129 in an unusually heavy turnover. Merger talk involving Mack Trucks, White and Reo was revived as stocks of their companies soared in active trading.

Barnsdall Class A led a brilliant move in the oils and reached a new high above 37. Coppers were strong and rails inactive.

Money market conditions were generally unchanged, though the renewal call rate was marked up fractionally to 7½ per cent.

To Have Hearing On Open Doe Season

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 4.—Both sides of the open season for doe deer question will be heard by the board of game commissioners late today.

Ross Leffler, president of the board, prior to the meeting said that no final schedule had been drawn up but that an opportunity will be given both sides to present their views. All the delegations expected to appear are from Northeastern counties where the controversy has been heated.

Members of the commission met with the Governor prior to the hearing. They said that the conference had nothing to do with the scheduled hearings but was to discuss "administrative problems."

Although no member of the commission would talk for publication it was evident that the chances of a reversal of the ruling to permit the shooting of does is very slight at this time.

Jaworski Wanted In Pennsylvania

Cleveland Taxpayers Object To Standing Expense Of Bandit's Trial

WILL FACE DEATH IF BROUGHT HERE

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 4.—Allegheny county wants Paul Jaworski, Western Pennsylvania's arch bandit who will face death in the electric chair if returned here. Assistant District Attorney Andrew E. Park stated today following the receipt of a report that efforts are being made in Cleveland where Jaworski is held to send the killer back to Pittsburgh.

Information has been received here that Cleveland taxpayers have started an active campaign for Jaworski's removal to Pittsburgh so that the state of Ohio may be spared the expense of an unnecessary trial.

Jaworski who escaped from the Allegheny county jail in 1927 was captured in Cleveland last month after a gun battle in which he killed a policeman and wounded a bystander.

Park indicated today that Allegheny county authorities would probably wait for Cleveland authorities to suggest Jaworski's return here since Cleveland police had previously indicated their desire to keep the prisoner there.

Bankers' Discuss Farmers Problems

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—The final session of the American Bankers association convention today was devoted to the interests of the farmers.

Dean Harry L. Russell of the college of agriculture in the University of Wisconsin was the lone speaker. He spoke on "Upholding the Hands of Moses," discussing the agricultural problems facing the nation from the viewpoint of the bankers.

Justice Jennings Postpones Date Of Stewart Hearing

Perjury Charges Against Robert Stewart Will Be Heard On November 12

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The perjury trial of Col. Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, today was postponed from October 8 until November 12 by Justice Jennings Bailey of the District Supreme court.

Stewart, charged with perjury in connection with testimony before the Senate Teapot Dome committee was indicted two weeks after he had been acquitted of a charge of contemption June 14.

A government motion to postpone the trial until after elections was recently rejected. However, Justice Bailey today set the trial back because of a crowded docket, and the illness of three justices.

Hoff Called As Witness Against William Beckman

Civil Service Commission Calls Max "Boo Boo" Hoff For Testimony Today

SEEK TO OUST POLICE CAPTAIN

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—The calling of Max "Boo Boo" Hoff, alleged king of Philadelphia's bootleggers to appear before the civil service commission today as a defense witness in the police board trial of Captain William C. Beckman, suspended detective, overshadowed the special grand jury investigation. Beckman is on trial as a result of the declaration of the special grand jury that he is unfit to hold any public office.

Assistant District Attorney L. B. Schofield, introduced testimony yesterday showing $29,000 in protection money was paid Beckman, and other police officials, according to a bootlegger's books. The session was marked by heated clashes between Schofield, and William A. Gray, counsel for Beckman.

Hoff Employee Testifies

Louis R. Elfman, former employee of Hoff also will be recalled today. Elfman testified Hoff visited Beckman several times late at night thus linking the dectective head to the rum racketters. Indictments were prepared last night for Matt Patterson, ward leader, and Police Captain Charles W. Schoenleber, District Attorney John Monaghan announced they will be submitted to the October grand jury Friday. Another little black book with its list of protection money, paid cops has been unearthed, Monaghan also revealed. The arrest of Barish Poley, in New York, on liquor indictments here is merely the first step in a nation-wide search for all suspects whod have left the city, in connection with the grand jury probe. Monaghan announced two associates of Hoff, and a police captain are among the missing suspects.

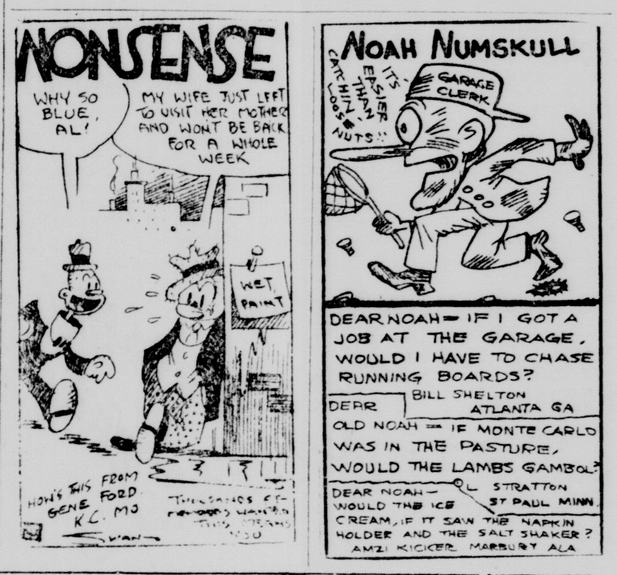

Ann Pennington Is Reported Engaged

Diminutive Broadway Star Neither Affirms Nor Denies Report

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Broadway cocked its usual eye of skepticism at reports today of the engagement of Miss Ann Pennington, the diminutive musical show queen to Buster West, equally diminutive star.

From Miss Pennington's apartments today a voice informed inquirers that there was neither confirmation nor denial of the report available while Buster West was quoted as dismissing the whole thing as "very silly."

Tunney And Bride Marvel At Wonders Of Italian Valley

Tunney And Polly Spend Early Hours Of First Night Gazing At Scenery

(International News Service)

PERUGIA, Italy, Oct. 4.—Under conditions romantically ideal, Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion of the world and his heiress bride, the former Josephine "Polly" Lauder, today began the first day of their honeymoon in this beautiful little hamlet.

Unharrassed by newspapermen, the couple drove up to the picturesque hotel Brufani here last night and engaged a suite.

Mrs. Tunney, bewitchingly outfitted in a mauve costume, suggested that they take a suite with balconies overlooking the valley beneath this hillside nook.

After surveying the scene for a long while, Gene and his bride came indoors. A waiter served a light supper consisting of cold cuts and then withdrew shortly after midnight.

Conference Is Held On Construction Of Bridge Near Park

County Commissioners B. R. & P. railroad officials, New Castle street railway officials and officials of Shenango township are holding a conference today relative to the removal and construction of a larger railroad bridge over the railroad tracks near Cascade park, in anticipation of the widening of the highway.

It is also expected that steps will be taken toward building a wider bridge over Big run, near Cascade park entrance. This project has been considered for some time but no official action has been taken. The road at this point is conceded to be too narrow.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Three guesses where the roaming for the next few days will be done, the winner to receive a handsomely engraved, filigreed oyster opener, made of nice fresh India rubber.

In case the puzzle is too much know that the roaming will be done much like a hydrant, all in one place, and that one place back of the World Series score board on Mercer street. Nice business but the series has to be shown.

It's a new board this year, a little more complicated than the old one, and its just possible that there will be some mistakes made. Will the brothers with the leather lungs out in the front of the board kindly forbear a trifle, exercising some of that well known Christian charity?

The Water Company seemed in a fairway to jim the works this morning. Somebody's pipes developed fallen arches or inverted bicuspids or something and the men had to dig up the sidewalk, toss out a lot of dirt and start throwing muddy water in the street (this has nothing to do with the song). The hole looked to be all set for a large cuspidor for the boys, but by noon the hole was filled up again.

Officer William Tyrrell will have his own troubles while the series is one. Bill is chief of the Public Safety Division for Mercer street during this period and while its a job keeping cars out of the street and seeing that nobody commits suicide in the stress of the games, Bill always gets away with it.

And here's a tip. Stay off the Post Office lawn fellows. Postmaster Crawford is under orders from Washington, from Cal or somebody, to keep the gang off the grass.

Request number two. Dr. C. A. Reed's front porch is in direct line of fire, and some of the sharpshooters who eat scrap tobacco for dessert have usually decorated the porch and steps with a stipling of dark brown. Now the doctor is a mild mannered gentleman, and he puts up with the crowds in front of his door much better than perhaps you or I would. But to spit tobacco juice all over the porch is sort of one too many. Either hold it or carry a can.

Those fair young things who mean so much in the life of Charles P. Walthers, and who manage to get in their daily dozen calls, might hold everything until after the game. Charles and his dulcet bathroom baritone will be heard on the air from the Public Address System. Monsieur Eduardo Fritz, Sports Editor, will be on the telegraph key, and Kasey Swisher and myself will be out in the front line trenches back of the board. The editor, G. W. Conway will be the water carrier and supervisor.

The Way OF THE World

HUMAN INTEREST

Somebody asks: What is a human interest story? Well, here is a human interest story. The parents of Lon Chaney, one of the most amazing motion picture actors in the world, were deaf and dumb. When Chaney was but a boy his mother became an invalid, her expressive hands forever motionless with rheumatism. The boy Chaney, only in the fourth grade, cared patiently, constantly, for his mother. She lay quietly day by day, her voice mute, her hands silent. Lon Chaney HAD to make his mother understand and he HAD to understand her. He learned the art of pantomime. He acquired the most extraordinary resourcefulness of expression. He became one of the world's greatest actors. It is an example of the reward of devotion—a reward he did not seek but which was inevitable.

SUBLIME

In the devotion of human beings to each other, to principle, to home, to flat—in all expressions of sincere loyalty there is something sublime. Man is not at his greatest in science or literature or art. He is not at his greatest in discovery and exploration. He is at his greatest in those few human relationships in which there is sublime self-forgetfulness.

FAITH

Near the top of a box which stands on a table is a small opening. Men sit in front of this little window and look and listen. Suddenly the players on a distant stage appear on a screen over the opening and the sound of the voices is heard plainly in the room. They are enacting a drama and this little audience is hearing it and seeing it by means of radio television. Soon the instruments, looking like radio sets today, will be on the market.

Where shall the doubter hide? What corner can the scoffer find that is dark enough? Who laughs at miracles and shows his ignorance? Who has small faith and displays his littleness? Life is too great to think little.

RECKLESSNESS

Los Angeles police have decided not to try and turn back the clock of this age and make it run more slowly. Men and women who drive automobiles fast are not to be molested, if they obey the rules, are not reckless, and courteous. Failing to obey traffic regulations, to make safety stops, and indulging in any kind of careless, reckless driving will be relentlessly punished, but on long stretches of unintersected streets and roads drivers can drive fast. That's a recognition of the age in which we live. It's a rapid age. Everything moves. But speed need not cancel courtesy. Speed need not be recklessness.

for as little as ...

$59.50

For a price no higher than that of an ordinary vacuum cleaner you can now buy a Hoover.

For this price you get three cleaning methods combined—suction, to remove the surface dust; sweeping, to gather up the thread and lint; and beating, to dislodge and flutter to the surface the embedded, clinging grit.

Only The Hoover combines these three methods; only The Hoover offers the deep-beating of "Positive Agitation." And without this beating, your rugs are never really clean.

Why subject your rugs to the grinding wear of embedded grit, when you can have the thorough cleaning of "Positive Agitation"? Phone for a demonstration. Liberal allowance for your old cleaner.

It BEATS ... as it Sweeps as it Cleans
